My time at the U of A has allowed me to cross paths with some wonderful people who have made Edmonton my home away from home. To any international students considering moving to pursue school, I say 'do it'. I know it's scary, but it is the first, most crucial step you can take so that your future self can look back and thank you.

I believe my 17 year old self would be proud to see how far we've come. I recognize how lucky I am to be thousands of miles from home conducting lab research with experts in the field.”
