

Graduate Student Travel Award Application

Department of Agricultural, Food and Nutritional Science

Value: Up to $250.

Eligibility: Awarded to AFNS graduate students to assist with expenses incurred in attending a scientific conference to present either a paper or poster related to their research. Candidates must be registered in a graduate program in the Department of Agricultural, Food and Nutritional Science. Awarded on the basis of academic excellence and demonstrated research ability. Students normally receive this award only once during their program.

Application: Eligible students should submit the application to grad.ales@ualberta.ca at least two weeks prior to traveling. For students completing their program, the application should be submitted and approved prior to the student's final exam date for attendance at a conference while the student is registered in a graduate program or up until the convocation date or study permit end date (whichever comes first). Funding is available until exhausted and will be awarded to eligible applications in the order they are received.

1. Your name and 7-digit student ID:
2. Name of the conference you wish to attend:
3. Location of the conference:
4. Travel dates:
5. Nature of participation (paper or poster presentation or other, please describe):
6. Other travel awards/support you received to offset expenses:

PLEASE ATTACH: copy of your abstract for the presentation; letter of support from your supervisor; cost estimates (airfare, hotel, registration, meals, ground transportation), and a letter/email confirming conference acceptance.

Your signature and date:

Your supervisor's signature and date: