ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP

Academic Leadership Positions & Accomplishments

- 2022 – present Provost’s Fellow, Student Accessibility and Implementation Lead, University of Alberta
- The goals of the Student Accessibility Assessment Project are to: assess the deficits and strengths of the current state of student accessibility; identify recommendations for the future of student accessibility services, governance, administration, and information; develop a high-level, strategic mapping for a proposed five-year Institutional Strategic Plan for Student Accessibility; and, contribute to the development of our accessible environments.
- 2021 – 2023 Associate Dean (Academic), Faculty of Education (2021-2022) - Associate Dean Online and Continuing Education, University of Alberta
- Originally, reporting to the Deputy Provost and Interim Dean of the Faculty of Extension, this new position guided the transformation of the Faculty of Extension into Online and Continuing Education, a university-wide hub for continuing and professional education. Since July 2022, Online and Continuing Education has been integrated into the Office of the Provost, this lifelong learning unit has been created as the centrepiece of the President’s vision to expand continuing education programming, and to create micro-credentialing programs that enable learners to rapidly adapt and develop the skills they need to be highly employable for the jobs of the future. The transformed university-wide hub fosters diverse communities of learners, model best practices for inclusive continuing education, and provide exceptional professional education programming across campus. Major accomplishments, as the only academic senior administrator for non-credit teaching and learning initiatives, I was accountable for all academic decisions within Online and Continuing Education.
- 2018 – 2022 Associate Dean (Teaching & Learning), Faculty of Arts, University of Alberta
- The Associate Dean (Teaching & Learning) is the senior Arts administrator accountable for the development and implementation of faculty-wide teaching and learning initiatives that enrich the learning experiences of undergraduate students (e.g., experiential learning, Work Integrated Learning, community service-learning, honors programs, study abroad, and entrepreneurship). Major accomplishments to date include: represented the Faculty of Arts on the Public Health Response Team (PHRT) Sub-Committee on Academic Issues, which shaped the University's response to the challenges of COVID 19; led the development, design and creation of Arts 101 (a gamified online program recruitment tool for high school students); formed and co-chaired the Arts Pedagogy Working Group, and created the Arts Remote Teaching Support team to support all Faculty of Arts in addressing the challenges of online course delivery; chaired the Arts Work Experience Implementation Working Group, overseeing successful Co-operative Education and Work-Integrated Learning Canada accreditation (CEWIL); served as academic lead of EXP+ (the Faculty of Arts Experiential Learning Unit); facilitated the ongoing development of eHUB Creative (an entrepreneurial initiative between the Faculty of Art and the Alberta School of Business); co-led the BA Honors Renewal Working Group, designed to reinvigorate this critical undergraduate research based experiential learning opportunity; created and chaired the Majors Maps Working Group, which successfully created program guides for 50+ Arts major programs now in use as essential student recruitment and retention tools.

2014 – 2017 2014 -2017 Associate Dean (Student Programs), Faculty of Arts
The Associate Dean (Student Programs) oversees undergraduate student policies on admissions, programs, convocation, and awards. Major responsibilities included: heard and ruled on disciplinary cases, grade appeals, academic standing appeals, student petitions, complaints, and grievances; provided strategic governance guidance to the Faculty of Arts' 16 departments, regarding courses and programs, ongoing Arts degree changes, admissions, and academic standing policies, as well as providing program and certificate development assistance. Major accomplishments included: led the faculty-wide BA Curriculum Renewal process; collaborated with Canadian Armed Forces to design, develop, and create the Certificate in Military Leadership (the first such certificate in Canada); with the senior leadership team, developed succession plans for Arts Undergraduate Student Services; and, contributed to the development of the Registrars' university-wide Program Tool for Admissions.

2010 – 2014 Associate Chair (Undergraduate Studies), Department of Art and Design, University of Alberta
The Associate Chair, Undergraduate: oversees the operation of the undergraduate program; recruits high quality students to the BFA, BDES and BA programs; administers the undergraduate awards program; serves on the Faculty of Arts Undergraduate Studies Committee; promotes undergraduate teaching excellence by nominating faculty and non-academic staff for awards; serves on the Arts Teaching, Learning and Engagement Committee; may serve as Deputy Chair in the absence of the departmental Chair; participates in undergraduate curriculum reviews; manages ongoing recruitment strategy development; oversees BFA/BDES admissions and orientation; presides over undergraduate appeals; serves as Grade Report signatory; and, conducts academic teaching staff evaluations.
