

Score	1	2	3	4	5
Relevance (25%)	The proposed activity has little to no connection to the student's academic and professional goals. The event is not relevant to the student's field of study or career aspirations.	The proposed activity has a weak connection to the student's academic and professional goals. There is limited relevance to the student's field of study or career aspirations.	The proposed activity is somewhat related to the student's academic and professional goals. It is relevant but lacks a strong connection to specific career or academic aspirations.	The proposed activity is closely related to the student's academic and professional goals. It has a clear and beneficial relevance to the student's field of study or career aspirations.	The proposed activity is highly relevant and directly aligned with the student's academic and professional goals. It significantly contributes to the student's field of study or career aspirations.
Impact (25%)	The proposed activity has minimal or no potential impact on the student's future career or academic pursuits.	The proposed activity has a limited potential impact on the student's future career or academic pursuits.	The proposed activity has a moderate potential impact on the student's future career or academic pursuits.	The proposed activity has a significant potential impact on the student's future career or academic pursuits.	The proposed activity has a substantial and transformative potential impact on the student's future career or academic pursuits.
Budget (10%)	The budget is unreasonable and not well-justified. There are significant discrepancies and/or the requested funds do not appear necessary.	The budget is somewhat unreasonable and lacks adequate justification. There are some discrepancies or unnecessary expenses.	The budget is moderately reasonable and somewhat justified. There are minor discrepancies but overall, it is acceptable.	The budget is reasonable and well-justified. The expenses are necessary and appropriate for the proposed activity.	The budget is very reasonable and thoroughly justified. All expenses are necessary, appropriate, and clearly detailed.

Leadership Skills (20%)	The application provides little to no explanation of how the activity will help explore leadership skills. There is no clear connection between the activity and leadership development.	The application provides a weak explanation of how the activity will help explore leadership skills. The connection between the activity and leadership development is not well articulated	The application provides a moderate explanation of how the activity will help explore leadership skills. There is some connection between the activity and leadership development.	The application provides a strong explanation of how the activity will help explore leadership skills. There is a clear and beneficial connection between the activity and leadership development.	The application provides an excellent explanation of how the activity will help explore leadership skills. There is a substantial and well-articulated connection between the activity and leadership development.
Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities (20%)	The application provides little to no explanation of what knowledge, skills, and abilities will be developed through the activity. There is no clear plan for applying them after the activity	The application provides a weak explanation of what knowledge, skills, and abilities will be developed through the activity. The plan for applying them after the activity is not well articulated.	The application provides a moderate explanation of what knowledge, skills, and abilities will be developed through the activity. There is some plan for applying them after the activity.	The application provides a strong explanation of what knowledge, skills, and abilities will be developed through the activity. There is a clear and beneficial plan for applying them after the activity.	The application provides an excellent explanation of what knowledge, skills, and abilities will be developed through the activity. There is a substantial and well-articulated plan for applying them after the activity.