Alberta Institutions Conference 2022

Conference Information

Welcome to the Alberta School of Business, Sixth Triennial Alberta Institutions Conference. On behalf of the University of Alberta, we thank you for your presence!

Pre-Conference Workshops

On Thursday, June 16, the IDEAS Workshop will be conducted from 9:00am - 12:00pm, and the Ph.D. Paper Development Workshop, co-sponsored by the journals, Organization Theory and Organization Studies, will take place from 1:00 - 4:30pm—both in the Centennial Room at the Westin Edmonton Hotel.

Main Conference

The Welcome Drinks Reception commences in the Westin's Share Restaurant on Thursday, June 16 from 5:00 - 7:00 pm. The Main conference sessions start on Friday morning, June 17, and end with lunch on Saturday, June 18, per the detailed schedule included on following pages.

Getting to Edmonton / Westin Edmonton Hotel

Edmonton International Airport (YEG) is located approximately 33 km (21 miles) south of Edmonton. The following transportation options are available to get to downtown Edmonton / The Westin Hotel from the airport, with additional information available on the website <http://www.flyeia.com/parking-transportation/>

- Rental cars are available at the airport, pre-booking recommended.
- Taxis are approximately $60.00 each way.
- UBER pick up/drop off at EIA costs approximately $50.00. Door 10 is the only pick up location.
- Public Transportation ($5.00, masks mandatory). Take bus #747 to Century Park LRT station, and take any train at the platform as they all head North. Get off at Central Station, and follow the signs for 100 Street and Jasper Ave. The Westin Hotel will be on your right side at 10135 100th Street.

The Westin Edmonton Hotel

10135 100th Street, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

Tel: 780.426.3636, Web: Westin Hotel Edmonton

An Incomplete List of Things to Do, See and Eat in Edmonton!

About Edmonton

Edmonton, home to 1.1 million people, is the capital city of Alberta and is known as “Canada’s Festival City”! It is famous for having the largest shopping mall in North America - the West Edmonton Mall, it is the northernmost major city in North America, and its spectacular river valley is the largest continuous urban park in Canada. However, there is much more to see and do in Edmonton. Keep reading, as we guide you through just some of the amazing things our city has to offer during your visit!

Orient Yourself

Space: Edmonton is bifurcated by the North Saskatchewan River, and is surrounded by a deep ravine known as the “River Valley”. This area constitutes the longest stretch of connected urban parkland in North America, and Edmonton has the highest amount of parkland per capita of any Canadian city; the river valley is 22 times larger than New York City's Central Park! This main "Ribbon of Green" contains a 25 km (16 mi)-long river valley park system with 11 lakes, 14 ravines, and 22 major parks, and most of the city has accessible bike and walking trail connections.

The river separates the two major sections of the city. On the south side of the river is the University of Alberta & Whyte Avenue (82nd Ave). This area has local shopping, restaurants, bars and clubs. The north side sports the downtown area which has undergone a continual process of renewal and growth since the mid-1990s. Many buildings were demolished during the oil boom, starting in the 1960s and continuing into the 1980s, to make way for office towers, condos and restaurants. The main street is Jasper Ave, the “core” of the city’s nightlife is at 104th St., with the culinary & food scene located along 124 St. The newly developed ICE District and Rogers Place arena are the home of the Edmonton Oilers NHL hockey team.

Time: At the summer solstice (this year on June 21), Edmonton receives over seventeen hours of daylight. On average, Edmonton receives 2,345 hours of bright sunshine per year, and is one of Canada's sunniest cities (even when it gets to -40°C during the winter). This means that there are lots of extra sunlight hours for outdoor activities (it is the only city I know where you can get a 9pm tee time) – but don’t forget the sunscreen.

Getting Around: Edmonton has a great public transit system, but most things are within easy walking distance or a short Uber / Taxi from the downtown core.

Some Things To Do In Edmonton!

A really great resource, among others, to browse through prior to and during your visit to Edmonton is www.exploreedmonton.com! In particular, check the information (links in blue) for:

Edmonton Visitor Guide: A fantastic resource for visitors who have never been to the Edmonton region, and for those who have - or even one for local residents to re-discover!

Events Calendar: Which lists several exciting things happening in Edmonton at the time of the conference, and is constantly being updated. With Edmonton dubbed "Festival City", there's always something to celebrate!

Farmers Markets: For unique local foods, crafts, and products, visit one of the many farmers markets in Edmonton. The Downtown Edmonton Farmers Market, which is within walking distance to the hotel, is a great spot to check out a whole range of wonderful local, handmade and fresh items to take back with you.

Indigenous Edmonton: Immerse yourself in Indigenous culture – in their stories, cuisine, art, and creative talents. June is National Indigenous History Month in Canada! Discover the innumerable contributions made by the indigenous people of this land we stand on, and which we locals call "home".

Foodie Paradise: Edmonton is a food lover's paradise, with talented, local and international chefs and culinarians creating delectable dining experiences for all palates, from all regions around the world. Discount Dining Passes provide deals at partner establishments in Old Strathcona and Downtown, as well as at brewery partners for some delicious local craft beverages...cheers to a fantastic AIC 2022 conference everyone!

Get Outside

River Valley Runs and Walks: There are so many wonderful trails, scenic parks, and off beaten paths along the river to discover. Our spectacular river valley is a natural wonder waiting to be explored and enjoyed by all who visit!

Golf: The City of Edmonton operates public golf courses in the river valley; the long summer days let even the hardest working fit in tee time.

Alberta Legislature Building: Beautiful grounds surround Alberta's seat of government, and a large central fountain makes for some excellent splashing on a hot summer's day. A great place for a walk, run, picnic, or an outdoor meeting. Free tours are also available, both in person and virtually!

Shop Till you Drop!

West Edmonton Mall: Visit the WEM, the largest mall in North America, and take advantage of the low taxes and favorable exchange rate!

Old Strathcona (Whyte Ave between 99th and 109th St): Here you can find many independent stores ranging from designer boutiques to vintage clothes. Take the beautifully restored High Level Bridge Streetcar to make your way from downtown (109 St) straight to Old Strathcona via the more picturesque route, as you ride high above and over the North Saskatchewan river!

Museum & Art Galleries

Royal Alberta Museum: Explore the Royal Alberta Museum's unique and informative natural, historical, Indigenous, and local cultural exhibits and collections. It is conveniently located downtown, just past City Hall and Churchill Square, which are both also places to visit.

Art Gallery of Alberta: Check out this beautiful art gallery and its revolving exhibits, which feature local and renowned artists. The building design is itself constructed to reflect the spectacular waves of the Aurora Borealis - the Northern Lights.

Latitude 53: A contemporary artist culture centre that promotes provoking local, national and international artists. This gallery is unlike other museums or galleries; it values experimental, diverse and sustainable art. It is worth checking out!

Other independent galleries can be found throughout the city, especially along the 124 Street/Jasper Avenue corridor, known as the "gallery walk".

Attractions

Fort Edmonton Park: Visit the historic Fort Edmonton Park, for a journey of Alberta through the ages! Historical buildings, interactive interpretive characters, Indigenous heritage and cultural exhibits, and the steam train and midway rides make for interesting, and fun times.

Muttart Conservatory: Visit the Muttart Conservatory, visible with its glass pyramids nestled within the river valley. The Muttart houses one of Canada's largest indoor botanical collections!

World Waterpark at WEM: Wrap up your West Edmonton Mall visit by riding the waves in the world's largest indoor wave pool, or whizzing down one of its many waterslides!

Festivals & Events

It's always Festival time in Edmonton! The Freewill Shakespeare in the Park festival kicks off June 14 in the gorgeous William Hawrelak Park outdoor Heritage Amphitheater. Or head over to UP on the Square which takes place at Churchill Square.

Celebrate National Indigenous History Month in Canada, with many events taking place across the country. The Edmonton Downtown Farmers Market nearby hosts the Indigenous Artist Market Collective.

Theatre & Live Performances

Take in a musical, dance, symphony, improv, or dinner theatre show at one of the many theatres and venues sprinkled across Edmonton! Located downtown, and within walking distance of the conference is the Citadel Theatre, and the Winspear Centre, home to the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra (ESO).

Across the river by Old Strathcona and the U of A, are the Varscona Theatre and the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium, with a wide variety of performances taking place through the year. Or you can catch dinner and a show at the Jubilations or Mayfair Dinner Theatres!

INDIGENOUS EXPERIENCES

Many Indigenous groups reside in Amiskwaciy Waskahikan (Edmonton), and the history of the land is long and vibrant.

ROYAL ALBERTA MUSEUM

For thousands of years, Indigenous people have lived in all parts of Alberta. Explore their ancient lifestyles at the Royal Alberta Museum and discover how Indigenous people maintain strong connections with significant places and stories of their past. Be sure to find the Manitou Asinîy, a sacred meteorite believed to hold great power and significance to many Indigenous communities. Web: www.royalalbertamuseum.ca

MÉTIS CROSSING

Located just 1.5 hours outside of Edmonton, Métis Crossing celebrates the story of the Métis through traditional crafts, tours, and food experiences. Take their Paddle into Past voyageur canoe experience or enjoy tours of their museum, historical village or new Cultural Gathering Centre! Stay the night and cozy up in a traditional trapper's tent, or relax and reconnect at the boutique luxury lodge. Web: www.metiscrossing.com

FORT EDMONTON PARK

The brand new Indigenous Peoples Experience at Fort Edmonton Park is an awe-inspiring addition to the park's exciting offerings. Gather and explore life through the diversity of First Nations' and Métis Peoples' histories and perspectives. The stories, music, artwork, and text in the experience come from local Indigenous perspectives and voices, gathered through engagement with local Indigenous communities and research. Web: www.fortedmontonpark.ca

ELK ISLAND NATIONAL PARK

Just outside of Edmonton lies a wild oasis, the perfect place to hike, canoe, camp, and spot free roaming bison! At Elk Island National Park, Indigenous voices share their own stories of their history and culture. Join programming at the park to connect with these experiences and deepen your understanding of Indigenous peoples. Web: www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/ab/elkisland

BEARCLAW GALLERY

More of an art lover? The Bearclaw Gallery carries a diverse selection of Canadian First Nations, Métis and Inuit art. This gallery also features works from internationally acclaimed Indigenous artists including Alex Janvier, known to be a pioneer of contemporary Canadian Aboriginal art in Canada. Web: www.bearclawgallery.com

INDIGENOUS ART PARK

In the Fall of 2018, Edmonton opened its first Indigenous Art Park. Situated in Queen Elizabeth Park, it is complete with breathtaking views of the river valley and downtown Edmonton. In this beautiful park, you will find six art installations, created by Indigenous artists who were asked to create pieces “inspired by this land”. Web: www.publicart.edmontonarts.ca/IAP/

FESTIVALS

If you're a cinematography fanatic or love Indigenous performing arts, don't miss the Dreamspeakers International Film Festival and Rubaboo Theatre Festival! Edmonton is also lucky enough to have its very own annual Edmonton Indigenous Peoples Festival put on by the Canadian Native Friendship Centre of Edmonton. In past years, this festival has held the world's largest round dance!

INDIGENOUS EATS

Feeling hungry? Indigenous Chefs in Edmonton are serving up incredible dishes across the city. Don't sleep on these foodie experiences and flavours!

FOOD & DRINKS IN EDMONTON

Edmonton embraces new flavours and ideas, allowing big-thinking chefs to thrive. Looking for Edmonton's best restaurants and culinary experiences? Let us take you on a journey through some of the hottest craft beer taprooms, hyper-local bistros and indie bakeries in Canada. Your tastebuds will thank you.

COFFEE SHOPS

TRANSCEND - Masters of coffee since 2006, Transcend is a must-try destination for true coffee fanatics. Staff are well trained and passionate, often reciting the complicated alchemy of handcrafted coffees.

CREDO - Credo is a set of sibling coffee shops well-known amongst locals for their quality coffee (and London Fogs for those non-coffee folks). Each cup of Credo coffee is filled with feel-good flavour.

ROGUE WAVE - Rogue Wave is owned by two caffeinated Daves, yes that's right, two Daves. The roasted beans in-house make a huge difference; the coffee is earthy and smooth. Must try: Mexican hot chocolate.

LOCK STOCK COFFEE -

At Lock Stock, espresso is pulled with care, savoury biscuits are baked fresh and heated to order, and English muffins are fried daily for a variety of sandwiches, making them a necessary stop when in the downtown neighbourhood.

BRUNCH SPOTS

PIP - Award-winning, and rightfully so, PIP changed the brunch scene when it made its appearance in Edmonton. Serving up a bangin' brunch every single day of the week, we wouldn't judge you if you showed up for each one. We'd highly recommend the short rib eggs benedict, or of course a classic favourite, avocado on toast.

SUGARBOWL - An absolute staple in Edmonton, you cannot leave Sugarbowl without trying one of their massive homemade cinnamon buns. And we really do mean massive, these things were made for sharing (unless you want to eat it all yourself, we wouldn't judge). Of course they have other amazing things on the menu, but really, try the cinnamon bun.

OEB - This breakfast haven may not be exclusive to Edmonton, but it's worthy of this list all the same. From oodles of different french toast varieties, to a full list of breakfast poutines (we highly recommend Soul in a Bowl. It's so good it's been registered and trademarked), you won't go wrong with whatever you pick.

CAFÉ BICYCLETTE - If breakfast with a little je-ne-sais-quoi is your jam, then checking out Café Bicyclette for your morning meal is a must. Their omelet is light, fluffy and packed with tasty ingredients like mushrooms and chopped bacon sautéed with chive butter and brie. Their bennies are a delight as well, made with ingredients that won't disappoint (like smoked salmon - yum!).

BAKERIES

DUCHESS BAKE SHOP -

Whether you've never stepped foot in Duchess Bake Shop before or you've been coming for years, this bakery is a mandatory stop when you're on 124 Street! The macarons are sweet pillows of delight, and just the right size to pretend that eating 10 of them doesn't add up to that many calories. Grab an assorted box to try all the flavours. And then get the pastry box. And then a cake, too. What the heck. Just get everything.

ELEANOR & LAURENT -

The Sugar Bowl's sister eatery, Eleanor & Laurent, is a café, boulangerie, patisserie, rotisserie, charcuterie, and meeting place. Come for the to-die-for pastries, stay for the elegant and adorable décor.

ITALIAN CENTRE SHOP BAKERY

- Not to be confused with the Italian Bakery, The Italian Centre is a well-known Edmonton staple in the heart of Little Italy (plus two other locations throughout the city!) and it's always stocked with the freshest Italian ingredients. This, of course, means that the desserts are out of this world.

FOOD & DRINKS IN EDMONTON

Edmonton embraces new flavours and ideas, allowing big-thinking chefs to thrive. Looking for Edmonton's best restaurants and culinary experiences? Let us take you on a journey through some of the hottest craft beer taprooms, hyper-local bistros and indie bakeries in Canada. Your tastebuds will thank you.

LUNCH TO GO

MEUWLY'S - No sandwich list worth its weight in carbs would be complete without a mention of Meuwly's. Part local marketplace, part delicatessen—this 124 street hotspot is the bees knees. The crew behind Meuwly's keeps it simple, with a choice of three rotating sandwiches at lunchtime.

FARROW - Sandwiches go punk at Farrow. Their tiny, original 109 Street location screams DIY— from the hand-drawn chalk menu to the tight kitchen just steps behind the counter. Farrow focuses on a small, unpretentious menu of delicious grab & go creations and high-quality coffee. The menu changes frequently, except for the Grick (their signature sandwich), so expect new flavours every visit. You can also check them out for your sandwich fix in Ritchie or on 124 Street.

Biera

DINNER

BIERA - Welcome to a brewpub with a twist. Nestled in Ritchie Market, Biera ditches traditional pub food for contemporary shared plates, paired with freshly brewed beer by Blind Enthusiasm. Chef Christine Sandford serves up some seriously inventive dishes, with a mix of Prairie and European influences.

UCCELINO - Foodies, listen up. Uccelino has some of the best Italian cuisine in Canada. This downtown gem introduces customers to unique Italian flavours through their incomparable food and wine. The Uccellino menu is traditional in its structure and modern in its execution, employing contemporary techniques while utilizing the highest quality ingredients to prepare simple and flavourful dishes.

COCKTAILS

BAIJIU - Baijiu (pronounced “Bye Joe” and translating to booze in Cantonese) is a cocktail bar & eatery that dishes out Asian-inspired plates meant to be shared. Tucked inside the historic Mercer building, located in the heart of Edmonton's ICE District, this late-night joint brings old world Shanghai chic to the once-upon-a-time warehouse with legendary cocktails and hip-hop spinning every night.

ALCHEMY BAR AT THE JW - Alchemy is Edmonton's go-to spot for an all-encompassing cocktail experience. Located on the fifth floor of the JW Marriott hotel in Edmonton's ICE District, Alchemy features an intimate indoor cocktail bar and lounge. Serving up handcrafted beverages and next-level bar snacks, Alchemy's menu is a curated collection of both classic and modern cocktails.
