Student Services

International Student Services

The International Student Services Office and the School of Business International Office jointly provide various support services for exchange students to help new international students adjust to life and study at the UofA..

International Student Services also provides ways for interested students to get involved in the local community.

Arc Card (Transit Pass)

The Universal Transit Pass (U-Pass) will give students unlimited access to all regular Edmonton area public transportation services for the duration of the academic term at an affordable price.

All students registered at the UofA are automatically enrolled in the U-Pass service. Fees are calculated and added to your fee assessment for exchange students.

Buddy Program

The Business Exchange Association (BEA) is a student association dedicated to assisting and integrating international students at the School of Business. The Association plans regular events and social gatherings throughout the semester that provide exchange participants with opportunities to mix with other students, make friends and have fun.

In addition, the group organizes a "buddy" program, which connects incoming students to a Canadian student who can pick them up from the airport, help out with transportation and accommodation over the first few days in Edmonton, and be a resource for all sorts of assistance throughout the exchange term. For more information, please visit the BEA website at www.uofabea.com.

Health Insurance

All students attending the University of Alberta for less than 12 months who are not Canadian citizens or permanent residents and who therefore do not have Alberta Health Care Insurance are required to participate in the University of Alberta Health Insurance Program (UAHIP).
