"This year we raised $22,000 in funds for our Chillin' For Charity event."

-JDC West

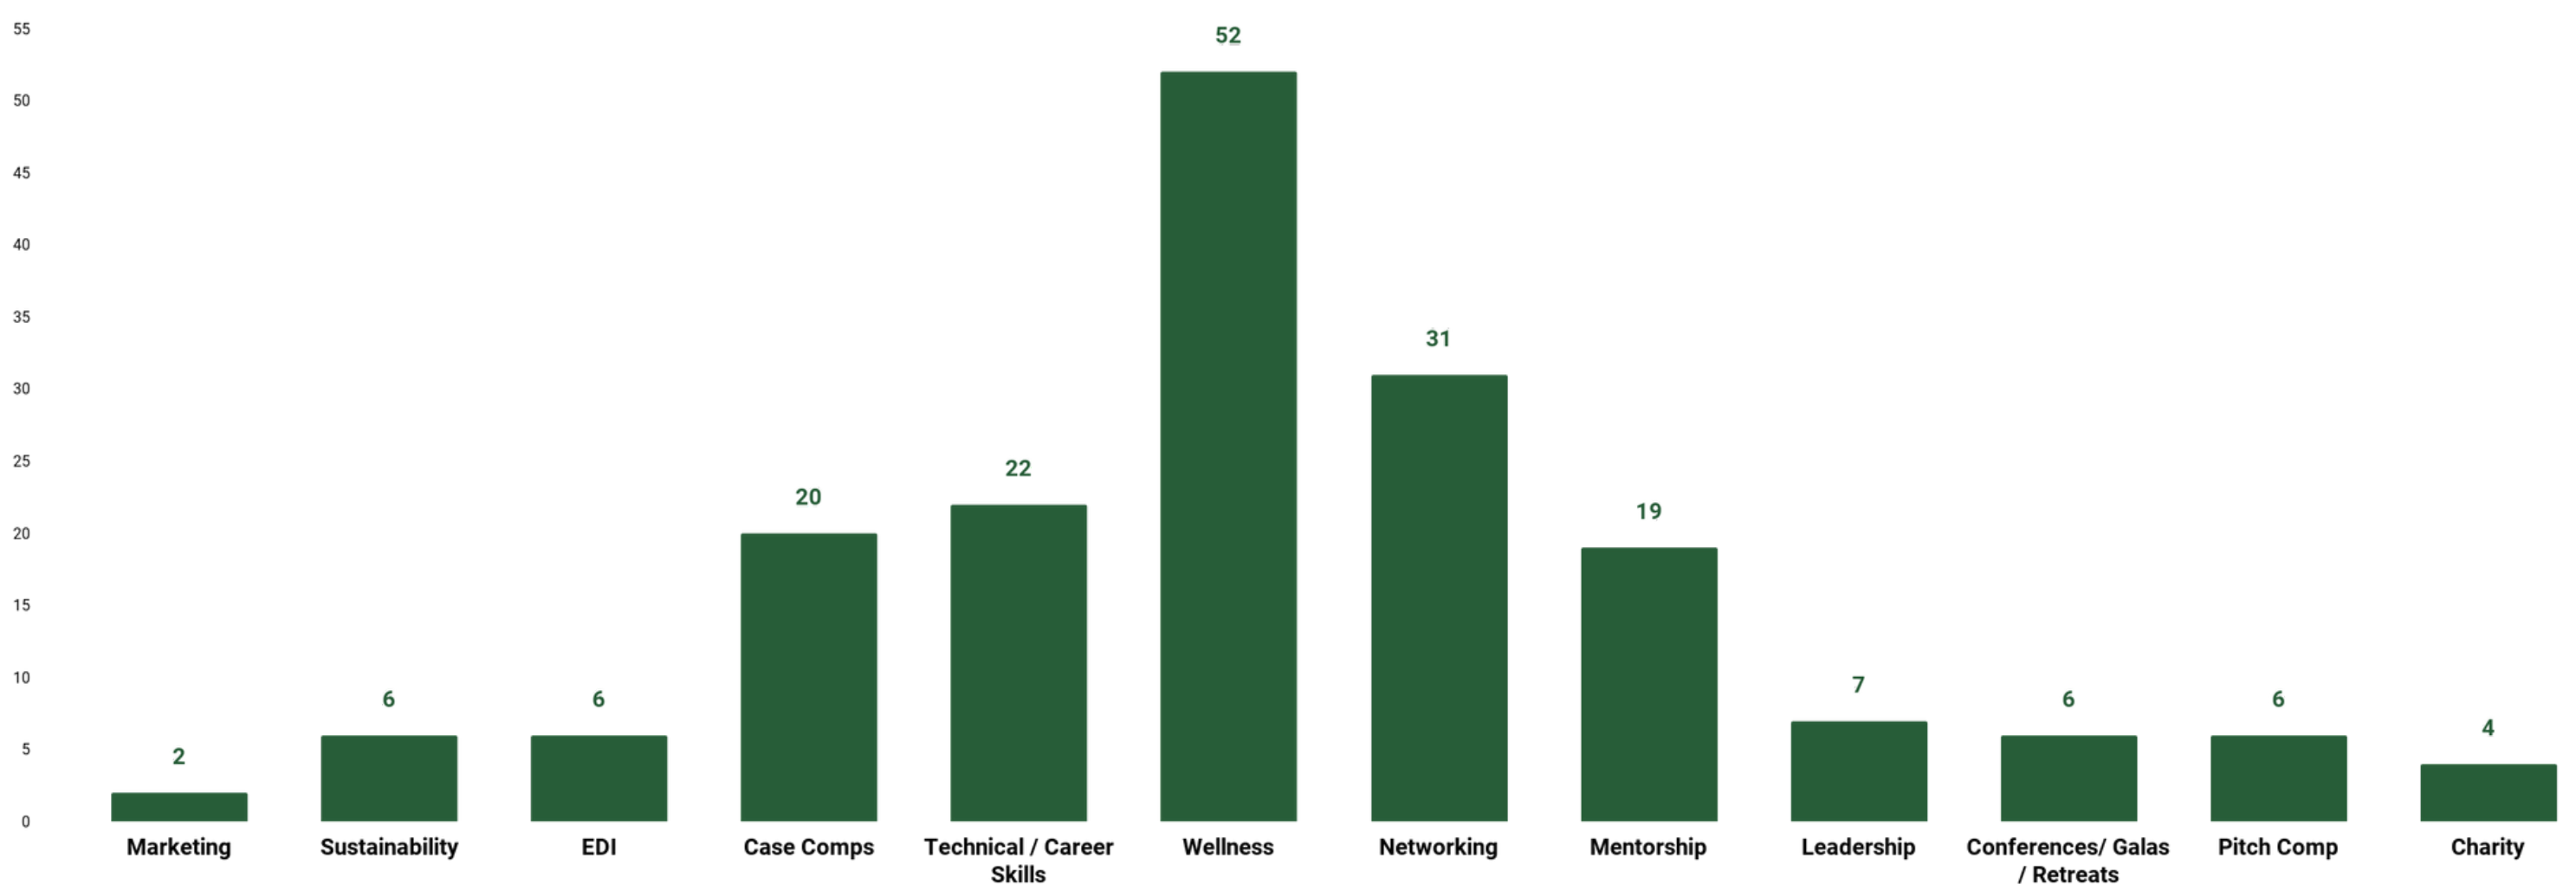

"Every Monday and Wednesday we distribute food to the business undergrads, this is our front line in introductions and connecting with the student body and raising awareness for our other services and events."

-Business Student Association

"What makes the AIBC unique from most of the other international case competitions held around the world is that the AIBC is completely student run. Most of the competitions of our caliber are hosted by universities and planned by paid organizations."

-Alberta International Business Competition (AIBC)

TYPES OF EVENTS:

*ASB student clubs are supported by the Experiential Learning team.
