

Application Form for Registration in CHEM 401
Fall Term or Winter Term

Instructions: (1) Print this form and fill it out. (2) Print a copy of your unofficial transcript. (3) Take this form and your transcript to your research supervisor for review/signature (4) Submit pdfs of the completed form and transcript to the Undergraduate Student Services office: undergrad@chem.ualberta.ca

Name _____ ID Number _____

e-mail _____@ualberta.ca

Program of study:

- Chemistry Honors or Specialization
- Chemistry Major General Sciences
- Chemistry Minor General Sciences
- Other (write in program) _____

Year of Study: _____

GPA _____ note that a GPA of 3.0 or higher is usually required for approval

Applying for (check one): Fall CHEM 401 Winter CHEM 401

I will have completed a 300-level chemistry course prior to taking CHEM 401 Yes No
(note that a *3 300-level chemistry course is a prerequisite for CHEM 401)

Signatures:

Student

Date

- I have met with my potential supervisor and they have clearly discussed expectations with me in regard to lab work (including hours), lab safety, group meeting and seminar attendance, as well as any other expectations as a 401 student. I agree to these expectations if accepted into CHEM 401*

Research Supervisor Signature

Printed Name

Date

- I have reviewed the student's academic transcripts and clearly described expectations through the term.*

Please return pdfs of this completed form and transcript to undergrad@chem.ualberta.ca

Note: Application does not guarantee placement in CHEM 401. Students will be notified by e-mail if their application has been successful and they are registered into CHEM 401. It is a violation of the Code of Student Behaviour to make a false declaration for academic or other advantage.