

North American Energy Dialogue

Seminar 2

The Mexican Energy Landscape: Perspectives from Canada, the United States and Mexico

Thursday, October 8, 2020 (8:00 - 9:00 AM MST)

After decades of a closed energy sector, Mexico opened up to private and foreign investment with the Mexican energy reform, which began in 2013. In this seminar, experts from Canada, the United States, and Mexico will discuss Mexico's current reality, sharing best practices, experiences, and policy options, from their respective jurisdictions.

Panelists

Dr. Carlos Elizondo Mayer-Serra

Professor at the School of Government and Public Transformation at Tec de Monterrey

Jorge Piñon

Director of the Center for International Energy and Environmental Policy, Jackson School of Geosciences at the University of Texas at Austin

Dr. Isidro Morales

Professor and Researcher at the School of Government and Public Transformation, Tecnológico de Monterrey

Jorge A. Rave

Chief Representative in Mexico City with Export Development Canada (EDC)

Register at:

ualberta.ca/energy-systems/news-and-events/energy-dialogue-seminars

Presented by the Kay Bailey Hutchison Center for Energy, Law & Business at the University of Texas at Austin, in partnership with the Energy Systems signature area at the University of Alberta, and the Energy Initiative at Tecnológico de Monterrey.

