Office of Administrative Responsibility	Provost and Vice-President (Academic)
The Purpose of the Proposal is (please be specific)	The proposal is before the committee to recommend approval of amendments to the Sexual Violence Policy, approval of the Student Conduct Policy and associated procedures, and rescission of associated portions of the Code of Student Behaviour. These proposals are brought forward in order to comply with the February 2022 communication from the Minister of Advanced Education.
Executive Summary (outline the specific item – and remember your audience)	In February 2022, the Minister of Advanced Education, Demetrios Nicolaides, and Associate Minister of Status of Women, Whitney Issek, issued a joint letter to the governing bodies of all public post-secondary institutions in Alberta (hereafter, the “Ministers’ Letter”). The Ministers’ Letter requires that all public post-secondary institutions in Alberta update their sexual violence policies and procedures with specific attention to providing procedural fairness and implementing trauma-informed practices for both complainants and respondents to a complaint. Any requisite amendments must be submitted to the Minister no later than November 2022. In addition, the University of Alberta has committed to reviewing its sexual violence policy documents and related processes to ensure clarity, consistency, and effectiveness. The University’s Sexual Violence Policy suite incorporates the Code of Student Behaviour (“Code”) as the procedure to be used to adjudicate complaints of sexual violence when the individual under allegation is a student. Accordingly, the revisions required by the Ministers’ Letter apply not only to the University’s Sexual Violence Policy suite, but to the Code as well.

The current Code is a single and combined policy and procedure document that addresses academic misconduct, non-academic misconduct, sanctions and the procedures to be followed by relevant offices. To meet the requirements of the Ministers' Letter and to ensure its fairness, integrity and accessibility, it is proposed that the non-academic portions of the Code be replaced with a new Student Conduct policy suite using the UAPPOL format.

Accordingly, approval is requested for:

- Amendments to the Sexual Violence Policy (to be renamed the Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Policy, with corresponding renaming to be applied to the subordinate Procedure);
- Adoption of the new Student Conduct Policy and associated Procedures (Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure, Student Misconduct Ticket Procedure, Student Misconduct Appeal Procedure);
- Rescission and amendment of the corresponding sections of the Code.

Section 31 of the Post-Secondary Learning Act (PSLA) gives General Faculties Council (GFC) general supervision of student affairs including authority over student discipline. In addition to this authority over student discipline, the GFC may, under the PSLA, delegate its power to discipline students.

GFC's authority to discipline students is "subject to a right of appeal to the board". To fulfill this appeal function, the Board is identified as the approver for the Student Misconduct Appeal Procedure and the Student Misconduct Ticket Procedure. Upon approval, the Board delegates the functions in the appeal processes to the persons identified in the Student Misconduct Appeal Procedure and the Student Misconduct Ticket Procedure. Section 16 of the Student Conduct Policy describes the approval authorities for future amendments to the suite.

Draft materials were brought to relevant governance bodies for consultation in May 2022, and extensive consultation has been undertaken with affected stakeholders. In order to meet the timeline mandated in the Minister's letter, approval is required through the current governance cycle.

This proposal addresses the following institutional risks: Faculty and Staff; Leadership and Change; Relationship with Stakeholders; Reputation; Safety; Student Success.

As a second phase of work, on a longer approval timeline, it is proposed that academic portions of the Code be updated to reflect the new College structure and align with current best practice, to be accompanied by an Academic Integrity Policy and associated procedures.

Legislative Compliance and jurisdiction	The Post-Secondary Learning Act (PSLA) authorizes the General Faculties Council (or delegate) to discipline students, subject to an appeal to the Board (or delegate). The University therefore has the authority to create student conduct and discipline policy and procedures which reflect our academic context, are based on best practices and meet the Ministers' requirements. The PSLA assigns authority over appeal processes to the Board of Governors.

Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Policy

Office of Accountability:	Provost and Vice-President (Academic) Vice-President (University Services and Finance)
Office of Administrative Responsibility:	Provost and Vice-President (Academic) Associate Vice-President, Human Resources, Health, Safety and Environment
Approver:	Board of Governors General Faculties Council
Scope:	Compliance with this University policy extends to all academic, support and excluded staff, postdoctoral fellows, and academic colleagues as outlined and defined in the Recruitment Policy (Appendix A and Appendix B: Definitions and Categories) ; undergraduate and graduate students and post-graduate learners; emeriti; and members of the Board of Governors.

Overview

Sexual and gender-based violence (SGBV) is a complex and serious problem in society and on university campuses. SGBV can affect individuals of all gender identities, gender expressions, and sexual orientations, as well as those of all ages, abilities, racial, cultural and economic backgrounds. The impact of SGBV is exacerbated for those at the intersections of multiple social locations for whom additional barriers exist, with disproportionately adverse impacts on queer and trans, Indigenous, Black, and people of colour. SGBV is just one form of violence used in colonization to marginalize Indigenous peoples up to the present day, as evidenced by Canada’s murdered and missing Indigenous women, girls, and Two Spirit people.

The University recognizes the harm caused by a culture in which common attitudes, norms and practices tolerate, normalize, trivialize, excuse or outright condone SGBV. Sometimes called “rape culture”, it is perpetuated in a variety of ways such as through images, television, music, jokes, advertising, jargon, words and figures of speech that normalize sexual coercion and shift blame onto those who have experienced sexual violence. Additionally, rigid conceptions of gender binary and gender roles in which masculine traits are privileged and feminine traits marginalized contribute to gender-based violence.

As an institution that exists in this context, the University takes seriously its responsibility to reduce SGBV by fostering a culture of consent, gender inclusivity, anti-oppression and support. In addition, the University will engage in various preventative activities, including communication, education, training and policy.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

- set out the principles that guide the interpretation and application of this policy and its associated procedures;
- articulate the commitment to those affected by SGBV;
- set out the responsibilities of the institution, senior leaders, and the University community with respect to SGBV;
- provide clear information on privacy, disclosure and confidentiality;
- provide for the creation of guides to interpret and apply this policy;
- provide for periodic review of this policy and its related procedures; and
- provide definitions which apply to this policy and its related procedures.

Policy

1. Guiding Principles

This policy and its associated procedures are guided by and will be interpreted and applied with reference to the following principles:

- a. The University is obligated to maintain a safe, vibrant and supportive learning environment (which includes all learning, research, work and community activities and spaces), and to foster a community in which SGBV is not tolerated. In addition,

- the University recognizes and values:
- i. the inherent dignity of all people;
 - ii. the importance of fostering a culture of consent, inclusion, thoughtful action and support through education, training, policy initiatives and communications;
 - iii. the need to identify and dismantle barriers to making a disclosure and/or complaint;
 - iv. the need for access to support and options for disclosers or anyone who has been affected by SGBV;
 - v. the legitimacy of options for accountability and/or healing outside of complaint processes, especially to address the differential impacts and harms complaint processes may have on those with intersecting social locations; and
 - vi. equity, procedural fairness, trauma-informed practice, and support for the parties to complaint processes related to SGBV.
- b. SGBV is prohibited and constitutes misconduct and is subject to the disciplinary processes laid out in the Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Disclosure Procedure.
 - c. Disclosers will have access to support, regardless of where or when the SGBV occurred.
 - d. Where the SGBV has affected the learning environment, disclosers will have access to a range of options to restore or establish a safe and vibrant learning environment.
 - e. Where the University has jurisdiction, complaints will be addressed under the applicable policies or procedures, including, for example, the Student Misconduct Procedure, the PDFA, NASA, AASUA or GSA collective agreements, or other applicable employment contracts and agreements, as identified in the Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Disclosures Procedure. Where there is a conflict between this policy and an article in a collective agreement, the article in the collective agreement will take precedence.

2. Commitment to Those Who Have Been Subjected to Sexual and Gender-Based Violence

- a. SGBV can have serious and enduring negative effects on physical, mental, emotional and spiritual health and wellness. The University recognizes the possible effects of trauma on those who have been subjected to SGBV and supports the efforts of individuals to seek support and recover. Regardless of where or when it took place, any person who discloses and/or makes a complaint of SGBV can expect to be:
 - i. treated with respect, dignity and compassion;
 - ii. informed about on- and off-campus resources and supports, including culturally specific resources, where available;
 - iii. provided with access to non-judgmental and coordinated support to mitigate barriers to participation in the learning environment that occur as a result of SGBV;
 - iv. offered options for modifications to prevent further unwanted contact with the subject of the disclosure and reduce, to the extent possible, the negative impacts of the SGBV on the discloser's ability to access and participate in the learning environment;
 - v. informed of any available non-disciplinary accountability options;
 - vi. provided with information about available complaint processes should they wish to pursue a complaint within the University and/or to an external law enforcement agency;
 - vii. offered safety planning assistance; and
 - viii. provided with an anonymous or third-party reporting option as outlined on the Options, Services and Resources for Those who have Been Subjected to SGBV web page.
- b. In order to remove barriers to disclosing or making a complaint under this policy:
 - i. Disclosers will not be subject to disciplinary action for their own prohibited alcohol or substance use connected with the incident(s) of SGBV.
 - ii. In any complaint process, investigators and decision-makers will protect complainants from irrelevant questions and/or assumptions, including those based on sexual history or expression.

- c. Subject to the limitations set out in sections 4 and 5 of this policy, disclosers will be considered the primary decision-makers in matters pertaining to themselves. As such, they can determine whether, to whom and what to disclose, choose from a range of options, decide whether to make a complaint within the University, and determine the extent of their participation in any University process. In addition, disclosers may choose to make a complaint to an external law enforcement agency, professional regulatory body, or engage any civil legal process.

3. Responsibilities

- a. The University recognizes its institutional responsibility to:
 - i. provide an effective policy and procedures to address and prevent SGBV;
 - ii. raise awareness about the policy and procedures and relevant support services on campus through institution-wide communications, education, and/or training opportunities;
 - iii. raise awareness of consent, gender inclusivity, SGBV prevention, and appropriate responses to disclosures of SGBV through institution-wide education;
 - iv. ensure equity, procedural fairness and trauma-informed practice for parties to a complaint, including timely resolution;
 - v. maintain safe, confidential and neutral mechanisms for individuals to disclose or make an SGBV complaint;
 - vi. ensure the safety of the learning environment by various preventative and responsive means, including the application of interim measures and other corrective action, where appropriate;
 - vii. provide coordinated and comprehensive supports for disclosers to reduce barriers to participation in the learning environment that occur as a result of SGBV;
 - viii. develop capacity and create space for voluntary accountability, restoration, and/or transformation for everyone involved wherever possible, both within and outside of complaints processes; and
 - ix. require that all individuals involved in administering, advising on, investigating or adjudicating SGBV complaints in any University complaint process have appropriate training as outlined on the SGBV Education and Training web page.

- b. All senior leaders, including the President, Vice-Presidents, Associate Vice-Presidents, Deans, Directors, Chairs, Chiefs of Staff, General Managers, and other officers of the University exercise administrative responsibility to implement this policy and the related procedures within their respective areas of responsibility, including by creating, supporting and maintaining a learning environment free from SGBV that promotes a culture of consent and inclusivity.
- c. All of those subject to this Policy are responsible for fostering respect and dignity for each other by encouraging a culture of consent and inclusivity; and for contributing to an environment in which individuals feel safe and supported in disclosing experiences of SGBV.

4. Privacy and Personal Information

- a. Any use and disclosure of personal information contemplated in this policy and the related procedures will be in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of Alberta.
- b. Privacy and the protection of personal information is essential for creating an environment where disclosers feel safe in disclosing their experience and seeking support. The University will protect the privacy of those involved in a disclosure or complaint of SGBV to the extent possible. Possible limits to the University's ability to do so include when:
 - i. there is a risk of harm to self or others;
 - ii. as necessary to administer modifications, interim measures, other corrective actions, any complaint process or other option; or
 - iii. reporting or action is required or authorized by law, including but not limited to, under the Occupational Health and Safety Act of Alberta or the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of Alberta.
- c. In such cases, the use or disclosure of personal information will be limited to that which is reasonably necessary and only to those with a need to know. The extent to which the University can maintain privacy around a disclosure will be determined on a case-by-case basis. The University will endeavour to inform all parties of these limits on its ability to protect personal information.

5. Confidentiality

- a. University employees will only use or disclose personal information that they learn solely as a result of receiving a disclosure or administering or participating in a University process related to SGBV in accordance with section 4 above. Contact the Information and Privacy Office for guidance about confidentiality and privacy.
- b. Parties and witnesses should not make public another person's personal information that they learn solely through any University process such as a disclosure, complaint, investigation, interim measures, modifications, corrective actions or non-disciplinary accountability options and should refrain from:
 - i. posting another person's personal information on social media or online;
 - ii. distributing confidential University documents in whole or in part;
 - iii. sharing another person's personal information with individuals outside of their immediate circle of support; and
 - iv. prompting or eliciting others to disclose another person's personal information.
- c. The University does not prohibit parties and witnesses from speaking about their own experiences, including, but not limited to seeking support for healing or rehabilitation. However, when disclosing another person's personal information within their immediate circle of support, the party or witness is also responsible for communicating the need to keep the information confidential.
- d. In any event, inappropriate disclosure of another person's personal information may affect the integrity of a University process, breach another person's privacy rights, and/or bring about other legal risks for the individual who breaches another person's privacy rights.

6. Guides for Interpreting and Applying this Policy

- a. Additional information to guide the interpretation and application of this policy and the associated procedures is located on the Office of the Provost website.
- b. The Sexual Violence Response Coordinator (SVRC) is responsible for generating information to guide the interpretation and application of this policy and its associated procedures and keeping that information current and up to date. 7. Review

- This policy will be reviewed from time to time as necessary to ensure that it reflects best and promising practices and, at a minimum, it will be reviewed every five years.

Definitions

Any definitions listed in the following table apply to this document only with no implied or intended institution-wide use.
Sexual and Gender-Based Violence (SGBV)	Any sexual act or act of a sexual nature, or act targeting sexuality, whether physical or psychological, committed without consent, or other forms of abuse and control over another person, based on their gender, gender expression, gender identity or perceived gender. This includes, but is not limited to the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Sexual Assault - Any form of sexual contact without consent. This can include unwanted or forced kissing, fondling, vaginal or anal penetration or touching, or oral sexual contact. Sexual Harassment - may be broadly defined as unwelcome conduct or comment of a sexual nature which detrimentally affects the learning environment or otherwise leads to adverse consequences for the person who is the target of the harassment. It may consist of unwanted sexual attention, sexually oriented remarks or behaviours or the creation of a negative psychological and emotional environment based on gender, gender identity or sexual orientation. It may be an isolated act or repetitive conduct but cannot be trifling. Retaliation or threat of retaliation against an individual for rejecting a sexual solicitation or advance may also constitute sexual harassment.

The person(s) engaged in harassment need not have the intention to harass; it is the objective assessment of the circumstances that matters. How would a reasonable observer perceive the situation? A complainant need not expressly object to unwelcome conduct or comments, although any clear indication that the behaviour is unwanted will satisfy the test. A complainant's apparent passivity or failure to object overtly to sexual advances does not necessarily signal consent or welcomed behaviour, especially where a power imbalance exists between the individuals.

- c. Stalking - Repeated unwanted contact or communication directed at another person that causes reasonable fear or concern for that person's safety or the safety of others known to them. The harm may be physical, emotional, or psychological, or related to the personal safety, property, education, or employment of an individual.

Stalking can occur physically (such as watching and monitoring, pursuing or following, making threatening or obscene gestures, sending unsolicited gifts), electronically (for example, continuously commenting or contacting via social media, surveillance, letters, text messages, emails or phone calls), directly and/or indirectly through a third party.

- d. Indecent Exposure - Exposing one's genitals, buttocks and/or breasts or inducing another to expose their own genitals, buttocks and/or breasts in non-consensual circumstances, in person or electronically.
- e. Voyeurism - Surreptitiously observing and/or recording another individual's full or partial nudity or sexual activity without the knowledge and consent of all parties involved.
- f. Distribution of Intimate Images - Includes showing,

	sharing, distributing or streaming of images, video or audio recording of a sexual activity or full or partial nudity of oneself or others, without the consent of all the recipient(s) and the subject(s) of the image or recording, or the threat to do the same. <ul style="list-style-type: none">g. Nonconsensual condom removal – The act of intentionally removing a condom during sex without the consent of the partner.h. Inducing intoxication, impairment or incapacity for the purpose of making another person vulnerable to non-consensual sexual activity.i. Intimate partner violence (IPV), also known as dating violence or domestic violence - Abuse or aggression that occurs in a current or former romantic relationship. IPV can range from one episode of violence to chronic and repeated episodes over multiple years. IPV can include physical, sexual, and psychological abuse.j. Retaliation - Retaliating against another person in relation to a disclosure or complaint of SGBV. Retaliation includes taking, attempting to take or threatening to take any adverse action, reprisal or retribution of any kind against anyone involved in any process described in the Sexual and Gender Based Violence Disclosures Procedure, including the person who made a disclosure or complaint, and anyone involved in an investigation or resolution of an allegation of SGBV, or friends or family members of those individuals. Retaliation can take many forms, including threats, intimidation, pressuring, harassment, continued abuse, violence or other forms or threats of harm to others, and be carried out in varying modes, including in person, via electronic communication or through third parties. Retaliation can also include adverse employment or educational actions taken or threatened against an individual because of participation in the reporting, investigating and/or resolution of an alleged violation of

	this policy, or any conduct that would discourage a person from participating. k. Other analogous conduct.
Intersectional(ity)/ intersection(s)	The acknowledgement that an individual can occupy multiple political and social locations, for example, along racial, gender, sexual, religious, ability, class and other lines, and that overlapping social locations can create a complex system of discrimination where individuals face compounded disadvantages.
Consent	Consent is a voluntary, ongoing, active and conscious agreement to engage in the sexual activity in question. Consent or a “yes” that is obtained through pressure, coercion, force, threats or by inducing intoxication, impairment or incapacity is not voluntary consent. Silence or ambiguity do not constitute consent. Additionally, there is no consent when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • it is given by someone else. • the person is unconscious, sleeping, highly intoxicated or high, or otherwise lacks the capacity to consent. • it was obtained through the abuse of a position of power, trust or authority. • the person does not indicate “yes”, says “no” or implies “no” through words or behaviours. • the person changes their mind and withdraws their consent. Consent cannot be implied (for example, by a current or past relationship, by consent to another activity, or by failure to say “no” or resist). In addition, consent cannot be given in advance of sexual activity that is expected to occur at a later time. It is the responsibility of the person wanting to engage in sexual activity to obtain clear consent from the other and to recognize that consent can be withdrawn at any time.

Learning environment	The learning environment is to be understood broadly to encompass all aspects of University life. It includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● physical and virtual spaces where University teaching, learning, work, research, residence, recreational and social activities take place; ● University activities, events and functions, including, but not limited to, teaching, research, studying, work, administration, meetings, public service, travel, conferences, and training; public lectures, performances, student group events, and social or sports activities.
Disclosure	Any verbal or written report or account by any person within the scope of this policy to a member of the University community that they have been subjected to SGBV, often for the purpose of seeking support or assistance.
Complaint	A type of disclosure made to a University official that alleges SGBV misconduct for the express purpose of initiating a formal University disciplinary process, including an investigation and decision on disciplinary action.
Discloser	Any person within the scope of this policy who discloses having been subjected to SGBV.
Procedural fairness	The elements of the process used by a decision-making body authorized by statute or policy to make a decision that affects an individual's rights, privileges, or interests, that give effect to an individual's right to reasonable notice of the case to meet, the opportunity to respond and the right to an impartial decision maker.
Trauma-informed	An approach to processes, procedures, and service provision that incorporates and responds to the effects of trauma. A trauma-informed approach takes into account the potential effects of trauma on cognition, memory and behaviour and incorporates steps to address the needs created by trauma and to prevent retraumatization.

Party/Parties	A complainant or respondent under this policy and the related procedures.
Modifications	Adjustments the University may be able to make for any person within the scope of this policy who discloses having been subjected to SGBV. The modifications may relate to their academic program, employment, University residence or recreational or other programs and are designed to mitigate the impact of SGBV on their access to or participation in the learning environment.
Non-disciplinary accountability options	Collaborative facilitated processes to explore interpersonal or institutional accountability options outside of a complaint. Typically requested by the discloser but voluntary for all parties, interpersonal accountability options are intended to be flexible and creative, and may include, but are not limited to: restorative practices, transformative justice, culturally-specific and appropriate practices, peacemaking circles, educational and other remedial activities. Institutional accountability options may include review of policy, procedure or practice to encourage disclosures and/or discourage SGBV; examination of factors contributing to or permitting SGBV in a specific department, unit or area; and initiatives or projects with the aim of creating or fostering a safe and supportive learning environment.
Interim measures	Non-disciplinary conditions or restrictions that the University may apply to a person within the scope of this policy alleged to have committed a violation under this policy. Such conditions may be applied in response to a disclosure or complaint. The purposes of interim measures are to ensure the discloser’s safety or the safety of the University’s learning environment, to remove barriers to the discloser’s access to the learning environment, to discourage or prevent retaliation, prevent further harm and/or preserve the University’s ability to conduct an investigation.

	Interim measures are not based on a finding of a policy violation, are not considered sanctions under any University complaint process, and will not be interpreted or used in a complaint as evidence that the person under allegation committed misconduct.
Corrective action	Corrective action includes, but is not limited to, interim measures, modifications, formal discipline for faculty, staff or students, and/or non-disciplinary accountability options.
SVRC	Sexual Violence Response Coordinator, or delegate.

Office of Administrative Responsibility:	Provost and Vice-President (Academic) Associate Vice-President, Human Resources, Health, Safety and Environment
Approver:	Provost & Vice-President (Academic) Vice-President (University Services and Finance)
Scope:	Compliance with this University policy extends to all academic, support and excluded staff, postdoctoral fellows, and academic colleagues as outlined and defined in the Recruitment Policy (Appendix A and Appendix B: Definitions and Categories) ; undergraduate and graduate students and postgraduate learners; emeriti; and members of the Board of Governors.

Overview

The University is committed to responding to and reducing sexual and gender-based violence (SGBV) and addressing its effects by providing:

- supports and resources to disclosers and to any other member of the University community who has been affected by SGBV;
- a range of options for disclosers who choose not to make a complaint;
- thoughtful and transparent corrective action, including modifications, interim measures and non-disciplinary accountability options to ensure the safety of the learning environment;

- processes to fairly decide complaints of SGBV; and
- education and training to the University community about SGBV and, in particular, mandatory training for those investigating and deciding complaints of SGBV and those who advise them.

Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to:

- provide guidance to members of the University community on receiving and responding to disclosures of SGBV;
- establish the SGBV Options Navigation Network (ONN);
- outline supports, modifications, protections, and options the University may be able to offer to disclosers;
- provide authority for the application of interim measures to ensure the safety of the learning environment;
- identify the procedures through which complaints of SGBV will be addressed and, where warranted, discipline imposed;
- set out the rights of the parties to a complaint; and
- address education and training in, and awareness of, SGBV for the University community generally and, in particular, require training for those investigating and deciding complaints of SGBV and those who advise them.

Procedure

1. Guidance on Receiving and Responding to Disclosures

The University's response to a disclosure will, to the extent possible, be guided by the needs of the discloser and their right to a safe and supportive learning environment. In this regard, a discloser can ask the University to provide supports and resources; facilitate academic, residential, recreation and/or work modifications; consider the application of interim measures; request a voluntary non-disciplinary option; and initiate an investigation of a complaint in accordance with the procedures in applicable agreements or policies.

2. SGBV Options Navigation Network

- a. The SGBV Options Navigation Network (ONN) is made up of University units with enhanced training to act as system navigators for those who have been subjected to SGBV and are seeking information on their options.

- b. Members of the University community should direct disclosures to an ONN unit to be advised of available options. Designated ONN units are listed on the SGBV Options Navigation Network web page.

3. Modifications

- a. Modifications are adjustments to the learning environment made for a discloser in order to reduce, to the extent possible, the negative impacts of the SGBV on their ability to access and participate in the learning environment.
- b. Disclosers can request modifications from:
 - i. any university employee where it is within their area of authority;
 - ii. the Sexual Assault Centre;
 - iii. in the case of students, the Vice-Provost and Dean of Students, or delegate;
 - iv. in the case of faculty, the Provost and Vice-President (Academic), or delegate;
 - v. in the case of staff, the Vice-President (University Services and Finance), or delegate;
 - vi. in the case of postdoctoral fellows, the Provost and Vice-President (Academic), or delegate; or
 - vii. in the case of academic colleagues, the Dean of the Faculty in which they were appointed, or delegate.

4. Interim Measures

- a. Interim measures are non-disciplinary conditions or restrictions that may be applied to a person under SGBV allegation. The University may apply interim measures in response to either a disclosure or a complaint where it receives reasonably credible information that:
 - i. would, if proven, constitute SGBV; and
 - ii. with regard to all of the circumstances, establishes there may be a risk to an individual, the learning environment or the integrity of any potential investigation.
- b. The purposes of such interim measures are to establish or restore a safe learning environment for the discloser and/or the community, discourage or prevent further SGBV (including retaliation), protect confidentiality, minimize disruption to the learning environment and/or preserve the University's ability to conduct a thorough investigation.

- c. Having regard to all of the circumstances, where interim measures are applied, they must have a rational connection to the purpose to be served, be proportionate to the impact of the alleged conduct, and be as minimally restrictive as possible to achieve their purposes. As a result, interim measures will be based on considerations including, but not limited to:
 - i. the needs of the discloser, and their right to a safe and supportive learning environment;
 - ii. the nature and/or impact of the alleged conduct;
 - iii. reasonably credible information about patterns of conduct or previous history of SGBV or other misconduct;
 - iv. the potential impact of the measures on the person(s) under SGBV allegation, including on their academic program and/or employment;
 - v. the potential impact of the measures on the learning environment;
 - vi. provisions or requirements set out in any relevant university policy or collective agreement; and
 - vii. any other relevant consideration.
- d. Examples of interim measures can be found in the University's Interim Measures Examples and Supports web page.
- e. The decision to apply interim measures will be made by:
 - i. in the case of students, the Vice-Provost and Dean of Students, or delegate;
 - ii. in the case of faculty, the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) or delegate;
 - iii. in the case of staff, the Vice-President (University Services and Finance), or delegate;
 - iv. in the case of postdoctoral fellows the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) or delegate; or
 - v. in the case of academic colleagues, the Dean of the Faculty in which they were appointed, or delegate.

- f. Decision-makers may consult as needed in determining whether to apply interim measures and the nature of those measures.
- g. In all cases, the decision to apply interim measures must be provided in writing to the individual to whom they are applied and include:
 - i. a description of the alleged conduct;
 - ii. the particulars of the measure(s);
 - iii. information about the right to request a reconsideration;
 - iv. information about relevant complaint processes, if applicable; and
 - v. referrals to supports and/or services.
- h. The substance of the interim measures will also be communicated to the discloser and any individual, department or unit only as necessary to administer the interim measures.
- i. The person(s) to whom interim measures are applied may request a reconsideration from the decision maker after sixty (60) days or such earlier time as agreed to by the decision maker, or at any time based on a change in circumstances or new information.
- j. At any time, the decision-maker may, based on new information or a change in circumstances, reconsider the interim measures applied and renew, revise, or revoke any or all of the measures, or apply additional interim measures, with written reasons for any changes.
- k. The decision-maker must review any existing interim measures, at a minimum, every four months and communicate any changes as a result of that review with reasons to the discloser, the person to whom the interim measures are applied and any other person as needed to administer the measures.

5. Procedures to Address Complaints

- a. A complaint is the only option that can result in discipline or sanctions against the person under SGBV allegation. The procedure to address complaints of SGBV is determined by the status of the person under SGBV allegation, for example, whether they are a student, union member, or excluded employee.
- b. In all cases, use of the procedures at the University does not preclude a report to the appropriate law enforcement agency, professional governing body, or pursuing any civil or other remedy available at law.

Students

- c. Complaints of SGBV against students will be addressed using procedures outlined in one or more of the following documents. When the respondent is:
- i. a student, the Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure;
 - ii. a student living in a University Residence, the breach of residence agreement process; and/or
 - iii. a student and the alleged conduct occurred in a practicum placement, the Practicum Intervention Policy.

Employees, academically employed graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, academic colleagues

- d. Complaints of SGBV against employees, academically employed graduate students (AEGS), postdoctoral fellows (PDF) or academic colleagues will be resolved in accordance with the procedures set out in their respective collective agreement, employment agreement or appointment. When the respondent is:
- i. a member of the Non Academic Staff Association (NASA), the processes outlined in the collective agreement between the University and NASA;
 - ii. a member of the Association of Academic Staff, University of Alberta (AASUA), the processes outlined in the applicable collective agreement between the University and AASUA;
 - iii. an employee, AEGS, PDF or academic colleague who is not subject to the above processes or, where no procedure exists or is specified in the collective agreement, employment agreement or appointment, the procedure will be determined on a case-by-case basis, ensuring that the parties to a complaint have the right to:
 1. an impartial and unbiased decision-maker;
 2. reasonable disclosure of the allegations in the complaint;
 3. an opportunity to respond to the allegations in the complaint;
 4. an opportunity to respond to or explain any evidence that does not support their account of events;

5. be accompanied by an advisor or, in the case of employees subject to a collective agreement, a union representative; and
6. have their case decided within a reasonable time. Where a procedure does not specify time limits, and depending on the complexity of the complaint, the University will endeavour to complete an investigation normally within four months.

Additional and external procedures

- e. Individuals who occupy multiple roles in the University may be subject to more than one of the above procedures and may, therefore, be subject to several procedures concurrently. Wherever possible, the parties will not be required to provide multiple statements.
- f. In addition to the procedures outlined above for students, employees, AEGS, PDF and academic colleagues, the University may also address a complaint or disclosure concurrently through additional means including, but not limited to:
 - i. the Protocol for Urgent Cases of Disruptive, Threatening or Violent Conduct;
 - ii. the Trespass to Premises Act of Alberta;
 - iii. the Petty Trespass Act of Alberta;
 - iv. a report or complaint to law enforcement, and/or
 - v. a report or complaint to a professional governing body.
- g. When the respondent is not affiliated with the University and/or not subject to the Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Policy, the University may address the matter through means including, but not limited to, the Trespass to Premises Act of Alberta, the Petty Trespass Act of Alberta or reports or complaints to the appropriate law enforcement agency or professional governing body.
- h. Where an incident constitutes a health and safety violation, a report to Health, Safety and Environment may also be required. Because these reports are not confidential, any report in the HSE Reporting Portal should include only cursory information and should not identify any individuals.
- i. University SGBV complaint processes are independent of any criminal, civil, regulatory or other proceedings. Any aspect of a SGBV complaint process may occur concurrently with, prior to, or following any criminal, civil, regulatory or other proceeding. In this regard:

- i. The University is responsible only for determining whether a person subject to this policy has violated this policy and is not responsible for determining violations in any criminal, civil, regulatory or other proceeding.
- ii. Subject to the provisions of any collective agreement, where an incident is also being addressed by another body or authority, the University may, in its sole discretion, proceed with or suspend an investigation or any aspect of the complaint process under this policy or its associated procedures.

6. Rights for Parties to a Complaint Process

- a. The SGBV complaint processes are guided by the principles of procedural fairness and trauma-informed practices to ensure that the University's processes do not add to or compound the harm sought to be addressed. The process and outcome(s) of a SGBV complaint can have severe consequences and can itself be stressful, traumatizing and harmful for both complainants and respondents. Accordingly, the complaint process must be conducted with due regard to its effects on both parties and in a procedurally fair manner. Investigators and decision-makers will use trauma-informed practices and be mindful to conduct their functions in a way that reduces, to the extent possible, additional harm for both parties to the complaint. As one example, investigators and decision-makers will protect complainants from irrelevant questions or assumptions, including those based on sexual history or expression.
- b. Subject to the provisions of any applicable collective agreement, employment agreement or appointment, the parties will have the right to:
 - i. be accompanied by an advisor and/or support person or, in the case of an employee subject to a collective agreement, a union representative, throughout their participation in any investigation, hearing or other aspect of the complaint process, and to be advised of these rights;
 - ii. be informed of, make and respond to procedural requests;
 - iii. at a hearing, make oral or written representations on their own behalf, through their advisor, support person or other appropriate person, regarding impact and sanction, without a face-to-face encounter; and
 - iv. receive written reasons for the decision.

7. Mandatory Training

- a. In addition to training on the application and interpretation of this Policy suite and other role-specific training, investigators, those applying interim measures, and/or deciding complaints of SGBV, and anyone advising them, are required to complete appropriate training in:
 - i. the dynamics and myths of SGBV;
 - ii. trauma-informed practice;
 - iii. procedural fairness; and
 - iv. gender inclusion and anti-oppression.
- b. Information on specific mandatory training is listed in the University's SGBV Education and Training web page.
- c. All staff in designated units of the Options Navigation Network (ONN) are required to complete training as specified on the SGBV Education and Training web page.

8. Education and Prevention

- a. Education and awareness are key to preventing SGBV. All community members subject to the Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Policy are encouraged to take advantage of essential learning opportunities related to SGBV. See the SGBV Education and Training web page for more information.
- b. The University will provide education and awareness campaigns for the entire University community on SGBV including, but not limited to, policy awareness, consent, anti-oppression and responding to disclosures.
- c. As other relevant training is developed, it will be offered to students and employees, such as, for example, training in bystander intervention and enhanced disclosure training.
- d. For further information about:
 - i. SGBV, see the Sexual Violence information website;
 - ii. receiving and managing a disclosure of SGBV, see the Responding to a Disclosure of Sexual Assault web page;
 - iii. options, support services and resources for persons affected by SGBV, see the Options, Services and Resources for Those who have Been Subjected to SGBV web page; and

- iv. the steps or measures the University can take in the learning environment, including modifications to academic program(s), a workplace, University residence, recreational or other programs, in response to a disclosure of SGBV; interim measures, anonymous or third-party reports, and complaints, see the Options, Services and Resources for Those who have Been Subjected to SGBV web page.

Sexual and Gender-Based Violence (SGBV)	Any sexual act or act of a sexual nature, or act targeting sexuality, whether physical or psychological, committed without consent, or other forms of abuse and control over another person, based on their gender, gender expression, gender identity or perceived gender. It may consist of unwanted sexual attention, sexually oriented remarks or behaviours or the creation of a negative psychological and emotional environment based on gender, gender identity or sexual orientation. It may be an isolated act or repetitive conduct but cannot be trifling. A complainant's apparent passivity or failure to object overtly to sexual advances does not necessarily signal consent or welcomed behaviour, especially where a power imbalance exists between the individuals. c. Stalking - Repeated unwanted contact or communication directed at another person that causes reasonable fear or concern for that person's safety or the safety of others known to them. The harm may be physical, emotional, or psychological, or related to the personal safety, property, education, or employment of an individual. Stalking can occur physically (such as watching and monitoring, pursuing or following, making threatening or obscene gestures, sending unsolicited gifts), electronically (for example, continuously commenting or contacting via social media, surveillance, letters, text messages, emails or phone calls), directly and/or indirectly through a third party. d. Student Conduct Policy

Office of Accountability:	Provost and Vice-President (Academic)
Office of Administrative Responsibility:	Vice-Provost and Dean of Students
Approver:	Board of Governors General Faculties Council
Scope:	Compliance with this University policy extends to all University of Alberta students as defined in this policy.

Overview

The University is defined by tradition as a community of people dedicated to the pursuit of truth and advancement of knowledge, and as a place where there is freedom to teach, freedom to engage in research, freedom to create, freedom to learn, freedom to study, freedom to speak, freedom to associate, freedom to write and to publish. However, these freedoms come with the responsibility to respect and not infringe upon these freedoms when they are exercised by others. For these freedoms to exist, it is essential to maintain a learning environment that fosters the safety, security, and the inherent dignity of each member of the community and to ensure that students conduct themselves accordingly.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

- set out the conditions under which this policy applies;
- set out the principles that will guide the interpretation and application of this policy;
- provide clarity on privacy, disclosure and confidentiality;

- identify behaviours which are unacceptable and constitute student misconduct;
- situate the student conduct process in relation to concurrent external proceedings;
- authorize measures to enhance safety and ensure equitable access to the learning environment;
- describe the standard of proof;
- describe acceptable evidence;
- authorize and set out the principles that will guide the application of sanctions for misconduct that has been found to have occurred;
- clarify expectations of parties to a complaint;
- stipulate required training for investigators and decision-makers in the student conduct process;
- identify sources of on campus assistance;
- articulate the delegated authority, under the Post-Secondary Learning Act of Alberta (PSLA) to discipline students, subject to an appeal to the Board;
- provide for periodic review of, and amendments to, this policy and its related procedures; and
- provide definitions which apply to this policy and its related procedures.

Policy

The University acknowledges the values of academic engagement, respectful debate, peaceful assemblies and demonstrations, and participation in the many aspects of University life as ways to enhance intellectual growth, health and wellbeing, and a sense of belonging. The misconduct listed in this policy describes, in general terms, student behaviours which if left unchecked would, to an unacceptable degree, disrupt the learning environment, threaten the proper functioning of the University and/or negatively affect the property or reputation of the university, which benefit all members of the University community.

1. Application

This policy applies to all misconduct or alleged misconduct by a student or by students, by any means whatsoever (including virtual or online), that has a real and substantial link to or a material effect on the learning environment, whether or not it occurred on or in relation to University property. The determination of whether any misconduct has a real and substantial link or material effect may be made by the Office of the Dean of Students, an investigator or any person or body authorized to make decisions in the disciplinary processes set out in this policy.

2. Guiding Principles

This policy and its associated procedures are guided by and will be interpreted and applied by reference to the following principles:

- a. The University is responsible for taking reasonable steps to ensure the safety of all members of the University community and its visitors, and the proper functioning of the University.
- b. All members of the University community are entitled to expect safe and equitable access to a vibrant and supportive learning environment.
- c. The University will create a supportive space for students to be accountable and provide redress to individuals and/or the community affected by the harm resulting from their misconduct. Wherever possible and appropriate, individuals are encouraged to explore non-disciplinary accountability options, including educational, developmental, restorative, transformative, or other voluntary facilitated resolution options.
- d. The student cycle at the University necessitates a timely way to address conduct that negatively affects the University community and the learning environment. Misconduct that interferes with full participation in the learning environment must be addressed expeditiously and fairly.
- e. Parties to a complaint are entitled to an appropriate level of procedural fairness. Complainants and respondents under this policy have the right to:
 - i. an impartial and appropriately trained decision-maker;
 - ii. have their case decided within a reasonable time;
 - iii. timely communication;
 - iv. be accompanied by an advisor and/or support person, throughout their participation in any investigation, hearing or other aspect of the complaint process, and to be advised of these rights;
 - v. reasonable disclosure of the allegations in the complaint;
 - vi. reasonable opportunity to respond to the allegations in the complaint;
 - vii. reasonable notice of the time, place, and nature of any hearing;
 - viii. an opportunity to respond to or explain any evidence that does not support their accounts of events;

- ix. provide evidence and suggest witnesses or lines of inquiry;
- x. be provided with written reasons for any decision made under this policy; and
- xi. where applicable, be reasonably accommodated under the Discrimination, Harassment and Duty to Accommodate Policy.

3. Privacy and Personal Information

- a. Any use and disclosure of personal information contemplated in this policy and the related procedures will be in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of Alberta.
- b. Privacy and the protection of personal information are essential for creating an environment where parties to a complaint feel safe in discussing their experiences and responding to allegations. The University will protect the privacy of those involved in a complaint; however, it is important to note that there may be limits to the University's ability to do so, when:
 - i. there is a risk of harm to self or others;
 - ii. as necessary to administer interim measures, an investigation, hearings, or other elements of the student conduct process; or
 - iii. reporting or action is required or authorized by law, including but not limited to, under the Occupational Health and Safety Act of Alberta or the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of Alberta
- c. In such cases, the use or disclosure of information will be limited to that which is reasonably necessary and only to those with a need to know. The extent to which the University can maintain privacy around a disclosure will be determined on a case-by-case basis. The University will endeavour to inform all parties of the limits of protection of personal privacy and confidentiality.

4. Confidentiality of the Student Misconduct Process

- a. University employees will only use or disclose personal information that they learn solely as a result of administering or participating in a University process related to student conduct in accordance with section 3 above. Contact the Information and Privacy Office for guidance about confidentiality and privacy.
- b. Parties and witnesses should not make public another person's personal information that they learn solely through any University process such as a complaint, investigation, interim measures, modifications, or non-disciplinary accountability options and should refrain from:

- i. posting another person's personal information on social media or online,
 - ii. distributing confidential University documents in whole or in part,
 - iii. sharing another person's personal information with individuals outside of their immediate circle of support, and
 - iv. prompting or eliciting others to disclose another person's personal information.
- c. The University does not prohibit parties and witnesses from speaking about their own experiences, including, but not limited to seeking support for healing or rehabilitation. However, when disclosing another person's personal information within their immediate circle of support, the party or witness is also responsible for communicating the need to keep the information confidential.
- d. In any event, inappropriate disclosure of another person's personal information may affect the integrity of a University process, breach another person's privacy rights, and/or bring about other legal risks for the individual who breaches another person's privacy rights.

5. Misconduct

- a. The conduct listed in Schedules A and B is prohibited and constitutes misconduct for which a complaint may be made under this policy.

6. Concurrent Criminal, Civil or Other Proceedings

- a. This policy and its associated procedures are independent of any criminal, civil, regulatory or other proceedings. Any aspect of the complaint process under this policy or its associated procedures may occur concurrently with, prior to, or following any criminal, regulatory, civil or other proceeding. In this regard:
 - i. The University is responsible for determining whether a student has violated this policy and is not responsible for determining violations of criminal or civil, regulatory or other proceeding.
 - ii. Where an incident is also being addressed by another body or authority, the University may, in its sole discretion, proceed with or suspend any aspect of the complaint process under this policy or its associated procedures.

7. Equity and Safety Measures

- a. Where there are safety concerns and/or barriers to full participation in the learning environment, the University may apply interim measures.

- b. In cases involving serious disruption, threats and violence, the University may invoke the Protocol for Urgent Cases of Disruptive, Threatening or Violent Conduct.
- c. Where applicable and necessary, the University may address the matter through means including, but not limited to, the Trespass to Premises Act of Alberta or the Petty Trespass Act of Alberta, reports or complaints to the appropriate law enforcement agency or professional governing body.

8. Standard of Proof

- a. All determinations that a violation of this policy has been established will be made on a balance of probabilities standard.

9. Evidence

- a. The student conduct process is not bound by the same rules of evidence as would apply in a court of law such as the Alberta Evidence Act or the law of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings. Decision makers under this policy and associated procedures can accept and consider any credible information that is relevant to the complaint including, for example, hearsay evidence.

10. Sanctions

- a. The aim of sanctions in general is to:
 - i. foster a safe, supportive and vibrant learning environment;
 - ii. promote accountability to individuals and the community; and/or
 - iii. rehabilitate the respondent, where possible.
- b. Sanctions are meant to be proportionate and the least restrictive means to accomplish the above aims. When considering sanction(s), a decision-maker can take into account any relevant factors.
- c. Sanction descriptions and their impact are detailed in Schedule C. Available sanctions include:
 - Conduct conditions
 - Exclusion
 - Expulsion
 - Fine
 - Refusal to consider applications

- Reprimand
- Restitution
- Suspension
- Suspension of essential or non-essential University services and resources

11. Who May Be a Complainant

- As described more fully in the procedure, a reporting individual may opt to be the complainant or, in consideration of their personal safety, availability or ability to participate, may request to act as a witness only or may withdraw from further participation.
- A reporting individual who chooses to act as witness only is entitled to receive regular updates regarding the investigation and decision(s), and to be advised of the outcome and reasons for any decision made.

12. Participation in the Investigation

- An investigation is a necessary and very important step in the complaint process. This is the reporting individual's and the parties' opportunity to provide all information and evidence, and to identify other witnesses who may have information and evidence relevant to the complaint.
- The investigator records the information and evidence gathered from the reporting individual and parties, and any other witnesses, in an investigation report. Decision makers will rely on the investigation report to make findings of fact for the purpose of determining whether or not a respondent violated this policy. Where, for example, a reporting individual, respondent or complainant does not participate in an investigation, the investigation report and decision will be based solely on the information that was gathered during the investigation.
- Accordingly, while the reporting individual and parties are not obligated or required to participate in an investigation, where they choose not to participate and decline to provide information to the investigator, they may be prohibited from later attempting to provide that information or evidence to University decision-makers under the Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure and the Student Misconduct Appeal Procedure.

13. Required Training

- In addition to training on the application and interpretation of this Policy suite, and other role-specific training, any person investigating or making decisions under this policy, and those advising them, will be trained in procedural fairness and anti-oppression.

- b. Investigators and decision-makers in cases related to interpersonal misconduct (Schedule A) will be additionally trained in trauma-informed practice, and the dynamics and myths of sexual and gender-based violence.
- c. Members of the Appeal Panel will additionally be trained in the standard of review applicable on appeals.

14. Sources of On Campus Assistance

- a. The Office of the Dean of Students, Office of the Student Ombuds, and Student Legal Services are available on-campus to provide assistance to students about the complaint process.

15. Delegation

Section 31 of the Post-Secondary Learning Act (PSLA) gives General Faculties Council (GFC) general supervision of student affairs including authority over student discipline. The GFC may, subject to an appeal to the Board, discipline students. In addition to this authority over student discipline, the GFC may, under the PSLA, delegate its power to discipline students.

Under this authority, the GFC has adopted and approved this Student Conduct Policy and the associated procedures and has delegated the functions in the student conduct process to the persons identified in this policy, the Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure and the Student Misconduct Ticket Procedure.

As noted, GFC's authority to discipline students is "subject to a right of appeal to the board". To fulfill this appeal function, the Board has adopted and approved the Student Misconduct Appeal Procedure and the Student Misconduct Ticket Procedure, and has delegated the functions in the appeal processes to the persons identified in the Student Misconduct Appeal Procedure and the Student Misconduct Ticket Procedure.

16. Review and Amendments

This policy will be reviewed from time to time as necessary, but at a minimum every five years.

- a. Amendments to the Student Conduct Policy and Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure:
 - i. The Student Conduct Policy Committee (SCPC) decides which amendments are editorial.
 - ii. On delegated authority from GFC, the SCPC will approve all editorial amendments to this policy and the Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure.

- iii. Where the SCPC deems amendments to this policy and the Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure to be substantive, the SCPC will forward the amendments to the GFC Executive Committee, which will decide whether or not it can act on behalf of GFC.
 - iv. GFC has final authority on amendments to this policy and the Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure, except where they pertain to the Board's authority as described in section 15 above.

SCHEDULE A - INTERPERSONAL MISCONDUCT

1. Discrimination and Harassment

- a. Discrimination against any person or group of persons, on the basis of protected grounds, while participating in the learning environment.

Discrimination is: differential treatment, whether or not intentional, based on a protected ground set out below, that has the effect of imposing on an individual or group of individuals' burdens, obligations or disadvantages that are not imposed on others, or of withholding or limiting access to opportunities, benefits and advantages available to other individuals in the learning environment.

The protected grounds are: race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religious beliefs, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, physical disability, mental disability, marital status, family status, source of income, or sexual orientation.

- b. Harassment, including Bullying and/or Racial Harassment

Harassment is a single or repeated incident of objectionable, unwelcome or adverse conduct, comment, bullying or action by a person that the person knows or ought to reasonably know will or would cause offence or humiliation to another individual or adversely affects that individual's health and safety, and includes conduct, comment, bullying or action because of race, religious beliefs, colour, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or otherwise.

Harassment includes bullying, which is a form of aggression that may include physical, verbal or emotional abuse. Bullying poisons the learning environment of the person it targets. It can include persistent, offensive, abusive, intimidating or insulting behavior which makes the individual feel threatened, humiliated and/or vulnerable.

The person(s) engaged in harassment need not have the intention to harass; it is the objective assessment of the circumstances that matters. How would a reasonable observer perceive the situation? A complainant need not expressly object to unwelcome conduct or comments, although any clear indication that the behaviour is unwanted will satisfy the test. A complainant's apparent passivity does not necessarily signal consent or welcomed behaviour, especially where a power imbalance exists between the individuals.

Racial harassment involves unwanted or unwelcome comments, conduct or behavior that humiliates, intimidates, excludes or isolates an individual or group by focusing on their race, ethnicity, origin or religion. Overall, racial harassment undermines self-esteem and is a violation of the dignity and security of the individual or group(s) that it targets.

See the Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Policy for the definition of sexual harassment.

- c. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated information or material for the purpose of creating a social or academic climate that the student knows or ought reasonably to know, excludes, hinders or prevents the full participation of another person or group of persons in the learning environment.

2. Threats and Endangerment

- a. Threatening or inciting any kind of violence or abuse to any person or group of persons that the student knows or ought reasonably to know, would cause the person or group of persons to fear for their health or safety.
- b. Possessing any weapon, unless authorized by University of Alberta Protective Services.

A weapon is a firearm, ammunition, air gun, explosive device or their replicas; or other items prohibited by law in Canada or their replicas (examples include but are not limited to: brass knuckles, pepper spray, switchblade knives, butterfly knives, and nunchucks).

- c. Creating a condition that the student knows, or ought reasonably to know, endangers or potentially endangers or threatens the health, safety or well-being of another person or group of persons.

3. Physical Assault and Abuse

- a. Physical contact with another person without that person's consent.
- b. Physical abuse of another person or group of persons.
- c. Sexual and Gender-Based Violence as defined in the Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Policy.
- d. Retaliating against any person who has provided information, served as a witness or acted in an official capacity in any University process described in the Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure.

Retaliation is: taking, attempting to take or threatening to take any adverse action, reprisal or retribution of any kind against anyone involved in a student conduct process including the reporting individual, and anyone involved in an investigation or resolution of an allegation of misconduct, or friends or family members of those individuals.

Retaliation can take many forms, including threats, intimidation, pressuring, harassment, continued abuse, violence or other forms or threats of harm to others, and be carried out in varying modes, including in person, via electronic communication or through third parties, with the aim of discouraging a person from participating in, administering, investigating or making a decision in any University process described in the Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure.

- e. Organizing, participating or engaging in hazing another person, regardless of whether the individual who is the subject of the hazing has consented to participate in or be subjected to the activities in question, or whether the activities in question constitute a ritual or tradition of an organization.

Hazing is creating an environment or committing any intentional, reckless or negligent act that:

- endangers the physical health, mental health or safety of another person; or
- produces physical or mental discomfort, embarrassment, humiliation, harassment, or ridicule; or
- results in the destruction, damage or removal of any public or private property; or
- causes, induces, pressures, coerces, or requires another person to violate any federal, provincial, municipal or University regulations; for purposes that include, but are not limited to, initial or continued admission, affiliation or initiation with any student group, athletic team, or any formal or informal organization in the University Community. Examples of hazing include, but are not limited to: any brutality of a physical nature, such as whipping, beating, branding, paddling, or electric shocks, exercise not legitimately related to a sport, forced consumption of alcohol or other substances, inappropriate exposure to the elements, compulsory nudity or immodest dress, transportation and abandonment, threats or implied threats, verbal abuse, physical or psychological abuse, sleep deprivation, physical confinement, coerced hazing of another, compulsory servitude, degrading activities, sexual simulation, sexual assault, or theft or misuse of others' property.

Student Misconduct Complaint Procedure

Office of Administrative Responsibility:	Vice-Provost and Dean of Students
Approver:	General Faculties Council
Scope:	This procedure applies to all University of Alberta students as defined in this policy.

Overview

As an institution of higher learning, the University adopts procedures that reflect its academic mission, that is, they aim to foster a safe, vibrant and supportive learning environment, and, wherever possible, encourage rehabilitation, learning, remediation and personal accountability for students in violation of the Student Conduct Policy. Non-disciplinary accountability options for resolution are also available, including educational, restorative, and other facilitated processes to create space for interpersonal accountability, with or without a complaint.

The University is committed to equity, procedural fairness and trauma-informed practice to reduce harm in the student conduct process and to ensuring there are timely and accessible processes to report, investigate, adjudicate and/or resolve complaints of student misconduct, as defined in Schedule A and Schedule B of the Student Conduct Policy.

Trauma-informed practice is beneficial to all parties involved in any complaint. Consequently, the procedures related to student misconduct use an investigative model. Parties to a complaint are provided the opportunity to respond to any evidence, information, or claims that do not support their account, without adversarial face-to-face encounters. The intent is to create safer spaces, reduce (re)traumatizing processes, and foster conditions in which the parties are able to provide the highest quality information. In contrast to an adversarial model, the investigative model also creates a safer space for a respondent to take responsibility for the harm caused by, and be accountable for, their conduct.

Different types of misconduct may have differential effects on the parties to the complaint and, therefore, require flexibility regarding the determination as to who will act as complainant. In particular, interpersonal misconduct, as defined in Schedule A of the Student Conduct Policy, can be traumatic and may result in academic difficulties and physical and/or mental health challenges for those subjected to it. Complaint processes that adjudicate allegations of interpersonal misconduct can also be harmful and further traumatize the parties involved in a complaint.

Where the University accepts a complaint, the respondent and the complainant, along with any witnesses, provide statements to an impartial investigator, along with all available information and evidence. The investigator conducts a thorough investigation and submits an investigation report to the Student Conduct Officer for consideration. The Student Conduct Officer holds hearings with the parties based on the information in the investigation report and makes a determination as to whether the respondent is in violation of the Student Conduct Policy, and appropriate sanction(s), if any.

Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to:

- foster a culture of accountability through restorative and other facilitated processes and non-disciplinary accountability options;
- provide a process for the application of interim measures to ensure the safety of, and equal access to, the learning environment;
- describe how the complaint process starts;
- set out the conditions to be met for the acceptance of a complaint and the recourse available for cases in which the University declines to accept a complaint and proceed with an investigation;
- describe the investigation process and the timelines for completion of an investigation report;
- describe the procedures for the Student Conduct Officer and the nature of the hearings before the Student Conduct Officer and the timelines for the issuing of their decision on the complaint; and

- describe the service of documents related to the complaint.

Procedure

1. Voluntary Accountability

- a. Individuals who have been subjected to misconduct may work with the Office of the Dean of Students to explore any available non-disciplinary accountability options. These options can take a wide variety of forms with differing requirements, but can only occur when the parties agree to participate in good faith.
- b. Where a complaint process is preferred, or where non-disciplinary accountability options are unavailable, inappropriate, unsuccessful or unsatisfactory, the reporting individual may make a complaint.

2. Interim Measures

- a. Interim measures are non-disciplinary conditions or restrictions that may be applied to a student alleged to have committed misconduct. The Dean of Students may apply interim measures whether or not a complaint has been made.
- b. The University may apply interim measures where it receives reasonably credible information that would:
 - i. if proven, constitute misconduct; and
 - ii. with regard to all of the circumstances, establishes that there may be a risk to an individual, the learning environment or the integrity of any potential investigation.
- c. The purpose of interim measures is to establish or restore a safe learning environment for the reporting individual and community, discourage or prevent further harm, protect confidentiality, minimize disruption to the learning environment and/or preserve the University's ability to conduct a thorough investigation.
- d. Having regard to all of the circumstances, where interim measures are applied, they must have a rational connection to the purpose to be served, be proportionate to the impact of the alleged conduct, and be as minimally restrictive as possible to achieve their purposes. As a result, interim measures will be based on considerations including, but not limited to:
 - i. the needs of the reporting individual, and their right to a safe and supportive learning environment;

- ii. the safety of the learning environment;
 - iii. the nature and/or impact of the alleged conduct;
 - iv. reasonably credible information about patterns of conduct or previous history of misconduct;
 - v. the potential impact of the measures on the student under allegation, including on their academic program;
 - vi. the potential impact of the measures on the learning environment; and
 - vii. any other relevant information.
- e. Examples of interim measures can be found on the University's Interim Measures Examples and Support web page.
- f. The Dean of Students may consult as needed in determining whether to apply interim measures and the nature of those measures.
- g. In all cases, decisions on interim measures must be provided in writing to the student to whom interim measures are applied and include:
- i. A description of the alleged conduct;
 - ii. particulars of the measure(s);
 - iii. information about the right to request a reconsideration;
 - iv. information about relevant complaint processes, if applicable; and
 - v. referrals to supports and/or services.
- h. The substance of the interim measures will also be communicated to the reporting individual and any other individual, department or unit only as necessary to administer the interim measures.
- i. The student to whom interim measures are applied may request a reconsideration from the Dean of Students after sixty (60) days or such earlier time as agreed to by the Dean of Students, or at any time based on a change in circumstances or new information.
- j. At any time, the Dean of Students may, based on new information or a change in circumstances, reconsider the interim measures applied and renew, revise, or revoke any or all of the measures, or apply additional interim measures, with written reasons for any changes.
- k. The Dean of Students must review any existing interim measures, at minimum, every four months and communicate the result of that review with reasons to the reporting individual, the person to whom the interim measures are applied and any other person and as needed to administer any changes.

3. Starting the Complaint Process

- a. The complaint process under the Student Conduct Policy and this procedure begins at the Office of the Dean of Students. After being informed of available options, a reporting individual can initiate the complaint process by providing the Dean of Students with a general overview of the conduct at issue including:
 - i. the nature of the alleged misconduct;
 - ii. name of the person alleged to have committed the misconduct; and,
 - iii. approximate dates, times and locations of the alleged misconduct.
- b. The purpose of this general overview is to enable the Dean of Students to determine whether to accept a complaint. As a trauma-informed practice, the Dean of Students will not take a detailed statement from the reporting individual.
- c. The complaint process may also be initiated by any University official who believes that conduct constitutes a violation.

4. Accepting a Complaint

- a. Based on the overview provided by the reporting individual, the Dean of Students will accept a complaint and refer it for an investigation where the following conditions are met:
 - i. the described conduct, on the face of it, has a real and substantial link to or a material effect on the learning environment; and
 - ii. the described conduct, on the face of it, constitutes a violation as defined in Schedule A or B of the Student Conduct Policy; and
 - iii. in the case of Schedule B misconduct, the violation occurred within one year of the report, or within such other time period as may be allowed at the discretion of the Dean of Students.
- b. Normally within three weeks of receiving a complaint, the Dean of Students will provide written reasons to the reporting individual where it declines to accept the complaint. The reasons for the decision will include a link to this policy, information regarding the right to appeal this decision, the appeal deadlines, the appeal procedures, and where on-campus assistance is available.

- c. The reporting individual may appeal the decision not to accept the complaint in writing to the Student Conduct Officer within 15 working days of the deemed receipt of the reasons for the decision not to accept the complaint.
- d. If the Student Conduct Officer decides that the decision not to accept a complaint was reasonable under the circumstances, a written decision with reasons will be provided and no further proceedings will be taken respecting the complaint under the Student Conduct Policy or this procedure.
- e. If the Student Conduct Officer decides that the decision not to accept the complaint was not reasonable under the circumstances or if new information has come to light, the Student Conduct Officer will request that an investigator be assigned to the matter.
- f. On accepting a complaint, the Dean of Students will offer the reporting individual the following options:
 - i. to be the complainant;
 - ii. to participate as a witness only and, where this occurs, the Dean of Students will appoint a person to be the complainant; or
 - iii. to withdraw from the process and any further contact regarding the process; however, without a statement to the investigator from the reporting individual, a complaint may not be able to proceed (see section 11 “Participation in an Investigation” in the Student Conduct Policy).
- g. Where a complaint involves Schedule B misconduct against the University, the Director of the affected unit will be the complainant.
- h. Where a report contains both Schedule A and B misconduct, and the misconduct affects both a reporting individual and a University unit, the Dean of Students will determine who will act as complainant(s), in accordance with the above, on behalf of either or both the reporting individual and the Director.

5. Investigation and Referral

- a. When a complaint is accepted and the complainant identified, an investigator will be assigned to conduct a trauma-informed investigation, which will normally consist of taking detailed descriptions of the incident from both parties in the form of recorded or written statements, and collecting any other supporting statements from witnesses or other types of evidence.

- b. Wherever possible, the recorded or written statements will be used in lieu of asking the parties to repeat their accounts throughout the investigation and decision-making process.
- c. Complainants, respondents and any witnesses present all of the information and evidence they have to the investigator. Where they are aware of any other information or evidence, they should alert the investigator to its existence.
- d. Prior to completing the investigation, the investigator will provide all participants in the investigation with the opportunity to review and make any corrections to their account, as summarized by the investigator, or provide any additional information or evidence.
- e. Having completed the investigation, the investigator will prepare an investigation report, including the following:
 - i. A description of the respondent's alleged misconduct;
 - ii. an overview of the facts based on the information and evidence gathered during the investigation; and
 - iii. wherever possible, observations about social or physical features in the learning environment which may have contributed to, allowed, tolerated, or encouraged the misconduct.
- f. Once completed, the investigator will forward the investigation report to the Student Conduct Officer for hearing and decision.
- g. Depending on the complexity of the case, the number of witnesses involved, and the amount of evidence to be collected, the investigation report will normally be completed within 6 weeks. Where the investigation report cannot be completed within this timeline, the investigator will give the parties notice of the anticipated timeline for the investigation report.

6. Student Conduct Officer Hearings

- a. On receipt of the investigation report, the Student Conduct Officer will:
 - i. provide reasonable disclosure of the investigation report to the complainant and respondent;
 - ii. invite each party to individual hearings with the Student Conduct Officer; and
 - iii. inform them of the purpose of the hearing and their right to bring an advisor and/or support person.

- b. The Student Conduct Officer will conduct trauma-informed hearings with the parties and their advisors and/or support person. Hearings will normally be in the form of virtual meetings with each party, with the option to request other formats such as in writing or in-person hearings. The format of the hearing will take into account specific requests from the complainant and respondent and the nature of the case at hand. The Student Conduct Officer may receive submissions on:
 - i. procedural requests, including but not limited to requests regarding the process, timing or delays, and/or format of hearing;
 - ii. the facts of the case;
 - iii. questions or issues to raise with the respondent, complainant or witnesses; and
 - iv. the impact of the misconduct and/or of the potential sanction(s).
- c. Procedural requests must be made in writing to the Student Conduct Officer. Where the request affects the other party, the Student Conduct Officer will allow the other party to respond or make submissions on the request before making a decision.
- d. Where a party becomes aware of another individual with material knowledge about the alleged misconduct who was not reasonably available at the time of the investigation, the Student Conduct Officer will refer the matter back to the investigator to interview that individual. The process will be put on hold pending the supplemental investigation report.

7. Decision

- a. Following the hearing, the Student Conduct Officer will determine, on a balance of probabilities, for each alleged violation whether:
 - i. the respondent was in violation of the Student Conduct Policy or other applicable University policy (“Violation”); or
 - ii. the violation was not established (“No violation”).
- b. In the event that a complainant or respondent fails to participate in the hearing(s) within a specified period of time, the Student Conduct Officer will proceed to make a decision on the basis of the available evidence.
- c. Where the Student Conduct Officer finds a violation, the Student Conduct Officer will:
 - i. perform the necessary checks to determine if there is a previous record of violation(s) for the respondent;

- ii. only consider any past record of the respondent's related violations for the purpose of determining an appropriate sanction; and
 - iii. determine the appropriate sanction(s) as listed in the Student Conduct Policy, Schedule C.
- d. The Student Conduct Officer will provide a written decision, normally within 6 weeks of receipt of the investigation report, which will include the following:
 - i. the violation(s) alleged to have been committed by the respondent;
 - ii. an overview of the relevant evidence and arguments presented in the investigation report and during the hearing;
 - iii. a summary of the findings;
 - iv. the reasons underlying the decision;
 - v. information regarding the deadlines and procedures for appeal; and
 - vi. a list of on-campus assistance.
- e. Where the Student Conduct Officer finds a violation, the decision will also include the following:
 - i. any sanction(s) imposed by the Student Conduct Officer;
 - ii. the date any sanction(s) will take effect and other necessary details; and
 - iii. information, including any history of related violations that may have been influential in determining the appropriateness of the sanction.
- f. Where the Student Conduct Officer is not able to provide the written decision within the timeline noted above, the Student Conduct Officer will give the parties written notice of the anticipated timeline for the decision.

8. Service and Notice

- a. The Student Conduct Officer will send the decision electronically to the respondent, the complainant, their respective advisors and, where applicable, the reporting individual, using their University accounts. See the Electronic Communication Policy for Students and Applicants in the University Calendar.
- b. In addition, the Student Conduct Officer will provide a copy of the decision for information to the following individuals:
 - i. the investigator;

- ii. the Office of General Counsel; and
 - iii. the Dean of Students.
- c. The Student Conduct Officer may also provide a copy or excerpts of the decision to any other University unit as may be appropriate to administer the sanction or for other authorized purposes. For example, to units including, but not limited to, the following:
- i. where a sanction is to be noted on the respondent’s central academic record or transcript, the Student Conduct Officer will inform the Office of the Registrar,
 - ii. where a sanction affects the respondent’s academic program, the Student Conduct Officer will notify the respondent’s College, or independent Faculty,
 - iii. in programs jointly offered with another institution, the Student Conduct Officer will provide a copy of the decision to the partner institution when the violation relates to the respondent’s conduct at that partner institution.
- d. The Student Conduct Officer’s decision is final and takes effect immediately, subject to an appeal under the Student Misconduct Appeal Procedure.

Student Misconduct Ticket Procedure

Office of Administrative Responsibility:	Vice-Provost and Dean of Students
Approver:	General Faculties Council Board of Governors
Scope:	This procedure applies to all University of Alberta students as defined in the Student Conduct Policy .

Overview

The University is committed to appropriate and proportionate responses to misconduct and where possible, immediate responses to minor misconduct. In instances where misconduct in or related to the learning environment is of a minor nature, or where its impact to the learning environment is minimal, a member of UAPS may issue a misconduct ticket with an associated fine in lieu of initiating a complaint under the Student Conduct Policy.

Section 31 of the Post-Secondary Learning Act (PSLA) gives General Faculties Council (GFC) authority to discipline students, “subject to a right of appeal to the board”.

To fulfill this appeal function, the Board has adopted and approved this Student Misconduct Ticket Procedure and has delegated the powers and functions in the appeal process to the persons identified in this procedure.

Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to:

- authorize the use of small fines in lieu of initiating a complaint under the Student Conduct Policy;
- specify the violations in respect of which a misconduct ticket may be given and the associated fine amounts;
- describe service and notice; and
- set out procedures to appeal a misconduct ticket.

Procedure

1. On becoming aware of minor misconduct or misconduct with minimal impact on the learning environment that nevertheless contravenes the Student Conduct Policy, UAPS members have the authority to issue a misconduct ticket with limited fines to students.
2. Neither the payment of a misconduct ticket nor the failure to appeal a misconduct ticket will be taken as evidence that a student has committed a violation in any other proceedings under the Student Conduct Policy.
3. Where a student has not paid the fine related to a misconduct ticket, or otherwise made arrangements for a payment schedule with UAPS, within 15 working days, the University may put an encumbrance on that student's central academic record until payment is received.
4. Where a student has paid the fine specified under a misconduct ticket issued under this procedure, individuals other than UAPS members may nevertheless initiate a complaint under the Student Conduct Policy. In such cases, the amount of the fine that the student has paid under the misconduct ticket will, where relevant, be taken into consideration by the Student Conduct Officer and/or the Student Misconduct Appeal Panel when considering the appropriate sanction for the student.
5. Misconduct Tickets are subject to the following limits:
 - a. Misconduct tickets may only be issued following minor breaches of Schedule B violations of the Student Conduct Policy; and
 - b. Fines for violations of Schedule B misconduct should be proportionate to the misconduct, but may not exceed $200.00.
6. A misconduct ticket will be delivered to the student electronically using their University account and the amount of the fine will appear in the student's Bear Tracks account. See the Electronic Communication Policy for Students and Applicants in the University Calendar.

7. The misconduct ticket will include the following information:
 - a. the name of the student and OneCard number;
 - b. the applicable violation;
 - c. the name of the member of UAPS who issued the misconduct ticket;
 - d. the misconduct ticket number;
 - e. the UAPS file number;
 - f. the date on which the misconduct ticket was issued;
 - g. the amount of the fine; and
 - h. the procedure to appeal the misconduct ticket.
8. Payment must be made to Financial Services within 15 working days of the date of the misconduct ticket.

9. Appealing a Misconduct Ticket

- a. A student may appeal the misconduct ticket within 15 working days of the date of delivery of the misconduct ticket by submitting a written appeal to the Student Conduct Officer. The appeal must include:
 - i. the student's name and OneCard number;
 - ii. the misconduct ticket number;
 - iii. the UAPS file number;
 - iv. the reasons for contesting the misconduct ticket; and
 - v. available supporting evidence, if any.
- b. Where a student appeals the amount of the fine or is unable to pay the fine, the student may seek alternatives from the Student Conduct Officer.
- c. If the student contests the misconduct ticket on the basis that they did not commit the violation, the student must submit any supporting information or evidence with their written appeal to the Student Conduct Officer.
- d. Where warranted, the Student Conduct Officer will request specified investigation as needed before conducting the hearing.

- e. The Student Conduct Officer will advise the appellant of the date and time of the hearing.
- f. The Student Conduct Officer may cancel the misconduct ticket, uphold the original misconduct ticket or vary the fine amount up to a maximum of $200.00. The Student Conduct Officer's decision is final and binding.

 2. The appellant was not given a reasonable opportunity to respond to evidence or statements contrary to their account;
 3. The Student Conduct Officer was biased; and/or
 4. Any other denial of procedural fairness.

- c. The complaint respondent may appeal the decision of the Student Conduct Officer on any of the grounds set out in (b) above and on any other grounds, including but not limited to:
 - i. The sanction is outside of a reasonable range, given the nature of the violation, and/or
 - ii. Other specified grounds for the appeal.
- d. The appeal will be based on the record which was before the Student Conduct Officer.
- e. The Appeal Panel will determine whether:
 - i. The Student Conduct Officer decision contained errors to the extent that those errors would have a material effect on the outcome of the decision; or
 - ii. In the case of an appeal by the complaint respondent, the sanctions imposed by the Student Conduct Officer were unreasonable in the circumstances.

2. Initiating an Appeal

- a. A complainant and/or complaint respondent may seek assistance from an advisor throughout an appeal process.
- b. Any appeal of the decision of the Student Conduct Officer must be submitted to the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator within 15 working days of the deemed receipt of the Student Conduct Officer's decision.
- c. The written appeal must state the grounds for the appeal and include all available arguments, evidence or objections in support of the appeal.
- d. Either party can withdraw their appeal at any time.

3. Appeal Panel Members

- a. For each hearing the Appeal Panel will consist of one academic staff member as chair and two students. All Appeal Panel members (academic staff members and students) will be elected by GFC. In selecting members of the Appeal Panel, GFC will attempt to keep the membership of the Appeal Panel as broadly representative as possible given the available pool of candidates.
- b. GFC will elect a roster of up to seven academic staff members to serve as chairs of particular hearings ("Roster of chairs"). The Appeal Panel chairs will serve a term of up to four years.

- c. GFC will elect a roster of 10 undergraduate students and 6 graduate students (“Roster of Students”). All student members will be elected to serve a term of up to two years and are eligible for re-election.
- d. When constituting the Appeal Panel, members will be chosen from the rosters listed above. The Appeals and Compliance Coordinator will endeavour to ensure that the Appeal Panel chair and members are impartial and free from conflicts of interest.
- e. When a hearing involves an undergraduate student, the Appeal Panel will include at least one undergraduate student. When a hearing involves a graduate student, the Appeal Panel will include at least one graduate student. For the purposes of selection and service on the Appeal Panel, graduate students are considered to be from the Faculty where they receive supervision. Students who are in any joint graduate/undergraduate degree program (e.g., the joint MBA/LLB program) are considered to be graduate students for the purpose of service and selection on the Appeal Panel.
- f. Any Appeal Panel member who has been called to serve on the Appeal Panel for a particular case must complete their service on that case even if their term on an Appeal Panel expires or, in the case of student members, a student graduates or changes status from undergraduate to graduate.

Alternates

- g. If all Appeal Panel chairs are unable to serve, the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator may complete an Appeal Panel by selecting a member of the GFC AAC Panel of Chairs.
- h. If all student members from the Roster of Students are unable to serve, the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator may complete an Appeal Panel by selecting either one full-time undergraduate student or one full-time graduate student, from the GFC AAC Panel of Students.

4. Mandatory Training for Appeal Panel Members

- a. All Appeal Panel chairs, members and alternates must have completed the training outlined in the Student Conduct Policy before hearing any appeals.
- b. At the discretion of the chair, having regard to trauma-informed principles and practices, new Appeal Panel members may attend any oral hearing as observers for training purposes. Delegates of the Vice Provost and Dean of Students and/or General Counsel may also attend any oral hearing as an observer.

5. Procedures for an Appeal

- a. On receiving an appeal, the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator will be responsible for collecting and distributing documents to both parties and providing each party with the opportunity to respond to all relevant issues raised in any procedural request, appeal submission, response, the record, and the Student Conduct Officer's decision.
- b. As documents and materials become available, the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator will:
 - i. Provide to the appellant:
 1. Confirmation of receipt of the appeal;
 2. A list of on-campus resources;
 3. A copy of the record before the Student Conduct Officer and the opportunity to submit any supplemental appeal arguments and/or material arising from the record within 15 working days of receiving the record;
 4. The response to the appeal, and notice that the appellant may reply only to any new issues or materials contained in the response (appellant's reply) within 5 working days of receiving notice;
 5. The respondent's reply; and
 6. Any procedural requests from the appeal respondent and notice that the appellant may, within 5 working days of receiving notice, submit a response to the procedural request.
 - ii. Provide to the appeal respondent:

 2. A list of on-campus resources;
 3. Notice that the response to the full appeal must be submitted within 15 working days of receiving the full appeal;
 4. If applicable, the appellant's reply, and notice that the appeal respondent may reply only to any new issues or materials contained in the appellant's reply within 5 working days (respondent's reply); and

5. Any procedural requests from the appellant and notice that the appeal respondent may reply to the procedural request within 5 working days.
- c. The appellant and appeal respondent must provide the name of their advisor to the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator.

 - v. where both parties have appealed the decision, schedule both appeals to be heard together by the same Appeal Panel at a single hearing; and

 - f. The Appeals and Compliance Coordinator will notify the parties of the date and time of the hearing.
 - g. The Appeals and Compliance Coordinator may take any other required steps in order to administer the appeal process.

6. Procedural Requests

- a. The chair will decide any procedural questions that arise both before and during the hearing, in consultation with the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator. The chair's decision on a procedural request will be decided in writing and may be made without an oral hearing. The chair's decision on a procedural request is final and binding.
- b. Procedural requests must be submitted in writing to the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator and include written reasons to support the request. Where the request affects the other party, the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator will notify the other party and allow them to respond or make submissions on the request before the chair makes a decision.
- c. Procedural requests include, but are not limited to:
 - i. Request that Appeal Panel chair or member not serve on Appeal Panel:
 1. After receiving the names of the Appeal Panel members, the parties will have 5 working days to submit a written request that the proposed Appeal Panel chair or member not serve on the appeal.
 2. These requests may be made only on the grounds that the proposed Appeal Panel chair or member may have a bias or conflict of interest that would prevent a fair hearing.
 3. If the request is granted, the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator will replace the proposed Appeal Panel chair or member with another member who will be selected by rotation from the same constituent group (i.e., academic staff, undergraduate student or graduate student).
 - ii. Request that sanctions be withheld until the appeal is decided:
 1. This request must be made within 5 working days from the date the appeal was submitted.
 2. If granted, the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator will direct the Registrar to:

 - a. the new evidence or information is relevant; and
 - b. was not reasonably available at the time of the Student Conduct Officer hearing; and
 - c. they made the request as soon as possible after becoming aware of the new evidence or information.
 2. The chair may only grant this request where the test set out in (1) has been satisfied on a balance of probabilities
 - iv. Request to vary the format of the hearing(s):
 1. Appeal Panel hearings will normally be heard in writing but either party can request an oral hearing with the Appeal Panel.
 2. This request must be made well in advance of the date set for the hearing.
 - v. Request to extend any time limits set out in this procedure;
 - vi. Any other procedural request.

7. Procedures and Powers of the Panel

- a. The Appeal Panel will consider the entire record, the parties' appeal, response and reply documents, and where applicable, the parties' oral statements made at the hearing before coming to a decision, by majority vote.
- b. In considering their decision, the Appeal Panel will show deference to the Student Conduct Officer's decision, particularly with respect to the Student Conduct Officer's findings of facts and, accordingly, may only overturn a decision of the Student Conduct Officer where it was made on the basis of an error or errors that would have had a material effect on the outcome.
- c. The Appeal Panel has the power to grant an appeal, in whole or in part, only where:
 - i. the appellant establishes that the Student Conduct Officer incorrectly

1. found or did not find a real and substantial link to or material effect on the learning environment;
 2. acted outside of their authority under the Student Conduct Policy;
 3. defined the elements of a violation; and/or
 4. other similar ground related to the application or interpretation of Student Conduct Policy.

 2. the Student Conduct Officer did not provide reasonable disclosure of the investigation report;
 3. the Student Conduct Officer was not impartial;
 4. the appellant was not provided with information about or sufficient opportunity to secure an advisor; and/or
 5. other similar ground related to procedural fairness.
- iv. In addition to (c) above, the Appeal Panel may grant an appeal of sanction made by the complaint respondent only where the appellant establishes that the Student Conduct Officer assigned a sanction(s) outside of a reasonable range, having regard to the nature of the violation and other relevant surrounding circumstances.

Decision of the Appeal Panel

- d. Where the Appeal Panel grants an appeal, they have the power to do the following:
 - i. With respect to an appeal by the complainant, the Appeal Panel must remit the matter back to the Student Conduct Officer who made the decision or, where appropriate, a different Student Conduct Officer, to remedy the errors and issue a new decision.
 - ii. With respect to an appeal by the complaint respondent, the Appeal Panel may:
 - 1. grant the appeal and overturn the decision;
 - 2. grant the appeal and remit the matter back to the Student Conduct Officer who made the decision or, where appropriate, a different Student Conduct Officer, to remedy the errors and issue a new decision; or
 - 3. substitute a different sanction.
- e. The Appeal Panel does not have the power to overturn a consequence resulting from a failure to meet specified conduct conditions (see Student Conduct Policy, Schedule C, "Conduct Conditions"). Any appeal of conduct conditions must be made at the time the sanction is imposed and within the time limits set out in the Student Misconduct Appeal Procedure. If the conduct conditions are not met, no further appeal is available when the consequence is applied.
- f. The Appeal Panel's decision is final and is not subject to any further review or reconsideration by any University person or body.
- g. The chair of the Appeal Panel will communicate the decision to the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator, who will, as soon as possible, relay the decision to the parties and their respective advisors.
- h. The chair will normally submit the Appeal Panel's written reasons for the decision to the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator within 15 working days of reaching the decision. Where the written reasons are delayed, the Appeals and Compliance Coordinator will give written notice to the appellant and appeal respondent.

8. Service of Documents

- a. Any notices, communications, and appeal materials will be sent electronically using University accounts. See the Electronic Communication Policy for Students and Applicants in the University Calendar.

CODE OF STUDENT BEHAVIOUR

Note from University Governance: The Post-Secondary Learning Act gives General Faculties Council (GFC) responsibility, subject to the authority of the Board of Governors, over “academic affairs” (section 26(1)) and “general supervision of student affairs” (section 31), including authority concerning “student discipline.” GFC has thus established a Code of Student Behaviour, as set out below.

The complete wording of the section(s) of the Post-Secondary Learning Act, as referred to above, and any other related sections, should be checked in any instance where formal jurisdiction or delegation needs to be determined.

30.1 Introduction

The University is defined by tradition as a community of people dedicated to the pursuit of truth and advancement of knowledge, ~~and as a place where there is freedom to teach, freedom to engage in research, freedom to create, freedom to learn, freedom to study, freedom to speak, freedom to associate, freedom to write and to publish. There is a concomitant obligation upon all members of the University community to respect these freedoms when they are exercised by others. For these freedoms to exist, it is essential to maintain an atmosphere in which the safety, the security, and the inherent dignity of each member of the community are recognized.~~

The enduring value of University life and of Degrees the University confers is ~~also~~ dependent upon the integrity of the teacher-Student learning relationship and upon the honesty and soundness of the evaluation process. Conduct by any member of the University Community that adversely affects this relationship or process must, therefore, be considered a serious offence.

Included in the Code of Student Behaviour are descriptions of unacceptable behaviour for Students in the University, the sanctions for commission of the offences, and explanations of the complete discipline and appeal processes. The definition of “Student” used in this document is a broad definition, one that includes current and former Students (see 30.2 for a definition of “Student”). Other members of the University Community, including Student Groups, are governed by other regulations. (GFC 03 FEB 2014)

~~The offences listed in the Code of Student Behaviour describe, in general terms, behaviours which if left unchecked would, to an unacceptable degree, infringe upon the freedoms described above and thus threaten the proper functioning of the University. Nothing in this Code shall be interpreted in such a way as to prohibit the activities or to violate the principles that are set out in the first paragraph of this section. Nothing in this Code shall be construed to prohibit peaceful assemblies and demonstrations, or lawful picketing, or to inhibit free speech. Nothing in this Code shall prevent the University from referring an individual matter to the appropriate law enforcement agency, should such action be considered necessary.~~

In order to protect the integrity of the Degrees conferred by the University, the University may suspend or rescind any Degree awarded to any graduate who, during the application process or while registered in a program or in a particular course in a program, commits an act of academic dishonesty which, if it had been detected before the granting of the Degree, would have resulted in a sanction sufficiently severe that the Degree would not have been granted.

~~The Code of Student Behaviour shall be followed in all cases of disciplinary action with Students except in situations where disruptive, threatening or violent conduct may inflict great harm to members of the University community or University property. In those cases the Protocol for Urgent Cases of Disruptive, Threatening or Violent Conduct (§ 91, General Faculties Council Policy Manual) will be followed before action is taken under the Code.~~

The Code of Applicant Behaviour provides charges, sanctions and procedures for application-related offences involving Applicants, as defined in section 11.8.3.4 of that Code. When a person registers for classes and has passed the Registration Deadline as published in the University Calendar, that person ceases to be an Applicant. Application-related offenses identified after the Registration Deadline will be administered under the Code of Student Behaviour. (EXEC 04 MAY 2009) (SCPC 25 JAN 2018)

The ~~Appeals Coordinator~~, Dean of Students, Office of the Student Ombuds, and Student Legal Services are available on-campus to provide assistance to Students about the discipline process.

(SCPC 25 JAN 2018)

30.5 The Discipline Process

30.5.1 The General Rules of Discipline and Appeal

30.5.1(1) ~~There are seven main disciplinary and appeal streams~~ A complaint can be initiated by a member of the University Community, an Instructor, or a Dean.

30.5.1(1) a A complaint is initiated by a member of the University Community under 30.5.2. The ~~Unit Director, Dean or Director of UAPS~~ must first determine whether pursuing the charges is warranted; if so, the investigation is undertaken and/or a decision is made by the ~~Unit Director, Director of UAPS, Dean or Discipline Officer~~ following the steps in ~~30.5.5, 30.5.6(3),~~ 30.5.7 or 30.5.8. The decision of the ~~Unit Director, Dean or Discipline Officer~~ may be appealed under 30.6 to the UAB whose review decision is final and binding. (GFC 28 SEP 2015)

~~30.5.1(1) b A complaint is initiated by an Instructor respecting Exclusion under 30.3.3. The Instructor makes a recommendation to the Dean; the Dean investigates and decides following the steps in 30.5.7. The decision of the Dean may be appealed under 30.6 to the UAB whose review decision is final and binding.~~

30.5.1(1) c A complaint is initiated by an Instructor respecting Inappropriate Academic Behaviour under 30.5.4 or Misrepresentation of Facts [30.3.6(4) or Participation in an Offence [30.3.6(5)] in cases respecting Inappropriate Academic Behaviour. The Instructor makes a recommendation to the Dean who investigates and makes a decision following the steps in 30.5.7. The decision of the Dean may be appealed under 30.6 to the UAB whose review decision is final and binding. (CLRC 30 MAY 2002)

~~30.5.1(1) d An investigation respecting an Inappropriate Use Offence is initiated by a Unit Director, who, on a finding that an offence has been committed, may impose Minor Sanctions and/or may recommend Intermediate Sanctions or Severe Sanctions (or some combination thereof) following the steps in 30.5.5. If an Intermediate or a Severe Sanction is recommended, the Discipline Officer, following the steps in 30.5.8, decides whether the sanction is warranted. Appeals of a finding that an offence has been committed or sanction imposed are made to the UAB under 30.6, whose review decision is final and binding.~~

~~30.5.1(1) e A Violation Notice and associated Fine and/or Restitution is issued by University of Alberta Protective Services which may be contested before the Director of UAPS or the Discipline Officer under 30.5.6(2).~~

~~30.5.1(1) f An investigation is initiated by the Director of UAPS, leading to a recommendation for Sanction to the Discipline Officer. The Discipline Officer, following the steps in 30.5.8, decides whether the sanction is warranted. Appeals of a finding that an offence has been committed or sanction imposed are to the UAB under 30.6, whose review decision is final and binding. (CLRC 29 NOV 2001)~~

30.5.1(1) g An investigation is initiated by a Dean, who, on finding that an offence has been committed, may impose Minor Sanctions or Intermediate Sanctions or may recommend Severe Sanctions (or some combination thereof) following the steps in 30.5.7. If a Severe Sanction is recommended, the Discipline Officer, following the steps in 30.5.8, decides whether the sanction is warranted. Appeals of a finding that an offence has been committed or sanction imposed are made to the UAB under 30.6, whose review decision is final and binding.

~~30.5.1(2) The following procedures do not preclude charges of Breaches of Rules External to the Code [see 30.3.6(2)] being laid against Students.~~

30.5.1(3) If a University staff member authorized to make a discipline decision has a conflict of interest in relation to particular allegations respecting a Student, the staff member shall so notify the Provost and Vice-President (Academic). The Provost and Vice-President (Academic) or delegate shall appoint and authorize another staff member to make the discipline decision and to perform all activities in connection with the decision.

30.5.1(5) a Because the Student already has the right of appeal under the Code, a Student may not appeal to the Faculty Academic Appeals Committee a mark of F given as a result of a discipline decision or an Academic Standing decision that is solely the result of a discipline decision. 30.5.1(5) b If a Student's Academic Standing is changed as a result of a discipline decision by the Dean or Discipline Officer to assign a mark of 0 on an assignment or lower the final mark, whether or not the final mark is accompanied by a remark, indicating Inappropriate Academic Behaviour, the Student may appeal to the Faculty Academic Appeals Committee only that portion of the mark unaffected by the sanction. In the case of an appeal to the Faculty Appeals Committee, there will be full and open disclosure of all aspects of the discipline decision. The Faculty Academic Appeals Committee cannot change that portion of the mark affected by the Dean or Discipline Officer's decision. (CLRC 27 MAR 2003)

30.5.1(5) c Because the Student has already had the right of appeal under the Code, a Student may not appeal an Academic Standing decision that is solely the result of a discipline decision to the Faculty Academic Appeals Committee.

30.5.1(5) d A Student may appeal to the Faculty Academic Appeals Committee an Academic Standing decision that is not solely the result of a discipline decision. In the case of an appeal to the Faculty Academic Appeals Committee, there will be full and open disclosure of all aspects of the discipline decision. The Faculty Academic Appeals Committee cannot change the portion of any mark affected by the discipline decision.

30.5.1(6) Service and Notice

In cases where students have an official campus address, material may be sent to that address by campus mail. 30.6 Procedures for Appeal of Decisions to the University Appeal Board (UAB)

30.6.1 Initiation of an Appeal

30.6.1(1) When a Student has been found to have committed an offence under the Code of Student Behaviour or an Applicant is found to have committed an offence under the Code of Applicant Behaviour, whether or not that Student or Applicant has been given a sanction, the Student or Applicant may appeal that decision, ~~except in the case of a decision of the Discipline Officer under 30.5.6(2)e.ii, which remains final and is not subject to appeal.~~ In cases where a severe sanction has been recommended to the Discipline Officer, once the student receives the final decision of the Discipline Officer, the student can appeal the decisions of both Dean and the Discipline Officer at the same time. The written appeal must be presented to the Appeals Coordinator in University Governance within 15 Working Days of the deemed receipt of the decision by the Student or Applicant. The finding that an offence has been committed, the sanction imposed or both may form the basis of appeal. The written appeal must also state the full grounds of appeal and be signed by the Appellant. The appeal shall be heard by the UAB. (CLRC 30 MAY 2002) (CLRC 25 SEP 2003) (EXEC 01 MAY 2006) (GFC 24 SEP 2007) (BEAC 17 OCT 2007) (EXEC 03 DEC 2012)

30.6.1(2) A Dean, ~~the Director of UAPS or a Unit Director~~ may appeal a decision of the Discipline Officer. The appeal must be presented in writing to the Appeals Coordinator in University Governance within 15 Working Days of the deemed receipt of the Discipline Officer's written decision. The decision shall normally be sent by campus mail and will be deemed to have been received 2 working days following mailing. The written appeal must state the full grounds of appeal and be signed by the Appellant. The appeal shall be heard by the UAB. (CLRC 30 JAN 2003) (EXEC 03 MAY 2004) (EXEC 02 MAY 2005)

30.6.1(3) If the appeal is only on the severity of sanction and there is no dispute over facts, the appellant or respondent may request to forego a formal hearing and elect to ask the UAB to hear the appeal only on paper. The request will be made in writing to the Appeals Coordinator, who shall forward it to the Chair for decision. To proceed with a paper appeal, all parties must agree to the request. (GFC 24 SEP 2007) (BEAC 17 OCT 2007)

30.6.1(4) The Appeals Coordinator shall keep both parties abreast of all appeals and decisions.

30.6.2 Terms of Reference and Powers

30.6.2(1) The UAB, as delegate of General Faculties Council and the Board of Governors, shall have authority to determine whether or not an offence has been committed and to confirm, vary or quash sanctions imposed under the Code of Student Behaviour or the Code of Applicant Behaviour (Section 11.8 of the GFC Policy Manual). Any conditions imposed within a sanction and any additional sanction to be imposed should those conditions not be met, must be appealed at the time they are imposed and within the time limits set out in 30.6.1(1). If the conditions are not met, no further appeal is available when the specified additional sanction is imposed. (EXEC 04 MAR 2002) (CLRC 25 SEP 2003)

30.6.2(2) Meetings of the UAB shall be scheduled as required to hear and determine appeals against discipline decisions.

- 30.6.2(3) All decisions made by the UAB will be final and binding.
- 30.6.2(4) The appeal shall be based upon the denial of the offence, and/or the severity of the sanction. A defect in procedures shall not warrant the quashing of the decision being appealed from unless the defect complained of can reasonably be said to have deprived either party of a fair hearing.

30.6.3 Composition

- 30.6.3(1) For each hearing the UAB shall consist of 1 Academic Staff Member as chair and 2 Students. Each member shall be chosen from the panels listed below.
- 30.6.3(2) All panel members (Academic Staff Members and Students) shall be elected by GFC. In selecting members of the Panel, GFC will attempt to keep the membership of the UAB as broadly representative as possible of all Faculties given the available pool of candidates, but it will be permissible for any of the panel members to come from one of the Faculties already represented by one of the other panel members.
- 30.6.3(3) Panel of Chairs: GFC shall elect a panel of up to seven Academic Staff Members to serve as chairs of particular hearings. At least one of the panel members shall have a Law Degree. The Appeals Coordinator has the discretion to select a panel member with a Law Degree to chair a particular hearing. The panel members will serve for staggered terms of office of up to four years.
- 30.6.3(4) Panel of Students: GFC shall elect a panel of 10 undergraduate Students and 6 graduate Students. All Student members shall be elected for up to two-year terms and are eligible for re-election. (EXEC 01 MAR 2004) (BEAC 30 APR 2004)
- 30.6.3(5) When a hearing involves an undergraduate Student or an undergraduate Applicant*, the UAB will include at least one undergraduate Student. When a hearing involves a graduate Student or a graduate Applicant*, the UAB will include at least one graduate Student. For the purposes of selection and service on the UAB, graduate Students are considered to be from the Faculty where they receive supervision. Students who are in any joint graduate/undergraduate Degree program (e.g., the joint MBA/LLB program) are considered to be graduate Students for the purpose of service and selection on the UAB. (EXEC 01 MAY 2006) (EXEC 04 JUN 2012)

*Applicant is defined in Section 11.8.3.4 of the Code of Applicant Behaviour.

- 30.6.3(6) No UAB member in a hearing will be from a Faculty which is party to the dispute. Students in any joint Degree program will not be called upon to hear appeals that arise from any of the Faculties involved in the joint program.
- 30.6.3(7) If all faculty members from the Panel of Chairs are unable to serve, the Appeals Coordinator may complete a Panel by selecting, in rotation, first from the UAB Panel of Chairs, and then from the GFC AAC Panel of Chairs. (EXEC 04 JUN 2012)
- If all student members from the Panel of Students are unable to serve, the Appeals Coordinator may complete a Panel by selecting, in rotation, either one full-time undergraduate student or one full-time graduate student, from the GFC AAC Panel of Students. (EXEC 04 JUN 2012)

The GFC Executive Committee shall have the discretion to appoint an Academic Staff Member as Chair for a hearing from outside the UAB or GFC AAC Panel of

Chairs. (EXEC 04 JUN 2012)

- 30.6.3(8) At the discretion of the Chair, new members may attend a hearing as observers.
- 30.6.3(9) Any panel member who has been called to serve on the UAB for a particular case may complete their service on that case even if their term on a panel expires or, in the case of students, a student graduates or changes status from undergraduate to graduate.
- 30.6.3(10) The Appeals Coordinator or designate may approach the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) (or delegate) if the Appeals Coordinator becomes aware of any reason why a particular member is unable to serve on a hearing panel, and request that the UAB member not be called upon to hear the appeal. The decision of the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) (or delegate) is final and binding. (CLRC 25 NOV 2004) (EXEC 10 JAN 2005) (BEAC 22 APR 2005)

30.6.4 Procedures Prior to a Hearing

- 30.6.4(2) The Appellant and Respondent will have 5 Working Days after receipt of the names to lodge a written challenge with the Appeals Coordinator requesting that the proposed UAB Chair or a panel member not serve on the appeal.
- 30.6.4(3) Challenges may be made only on the grounds that the proposed UAB Chair or panel member may have a bias that would prevent a fair hearing and must include written reasons to support the challenge. The Chair shall consider and rule upon the challenge. The decision of the Chair may be made without a hearing and shall be final and binding. If the UAB Panel has been constituted, the Appeals Coordinator will replace the UAB member with another member who will be selected by rotation from the same constituent group (i.e., academic staff, undergraduate Student or graduate Student). (EXEC 04 JUN 2012)
- 30.6.4(4) For each appeal, every attempt will be made to have a member in reserve from each category, prepared in advance to attend the hearing. (CLRC 30 JAN 2003)

The Appeals Coordinator shall ensure that as witnesses become known, the other party and the UAB are informed as to the identity of the witnesses.
- 30.6.4(10) The UAB Chair in consultation with the Appeals Coordinator will decide any procedural questions that arise before the hearing.
- 30.6.4(11) Either the Appellant or the Respondent may request in writing an extension of any time limits. The UAB Chair may extend any of the time limits where the UAB Chair is of the opinion that the applicant has a reasonable ground for requesting such extension. The decision of the UAB Chair may be made without a hearing and shall be final and binding.
- 30.6.4(12)
- a. The Appeals Coordinator shall consult with the Chair, who shall set a time and place for the hearing of the appeal. (CLRC 30 MAY 2002)
 - b. Reasonable delays are allowed but should either party feel that an unreasonable time has passed without the date of the hearing being set, either party may appeal to the UAB Chair, through the Appeals Coordinator, for a ruling as to whether the delay is reasonable. If the UAB Chair decides the delay is unreasonably long, then the UAB Chair shall set the appeal hearing date within 10 Working Days and the appeal hearing must occur within 20 Working Days. The decision of the UAB Chair may be made without a hearing and is final and binding. (CLRC 30 MAY 2002)
 - c. The UAB Chair sets the time and place for the hearing, and the Appeals Coordinator shall constitute the University Appeal Board and provide its members with:

30.6.4(14) Notices and other appeal materials sent by the Appeals Coordinator may be hand-delivered, sent by courier, or by regular or registered mail in accordance with 30.5.1(6). In all cases, the Appeals Coordinator will decide which method of delivery will be used.

30.6.4(15) Once the date for the appeal hearing is set, the Dean and/or the Director of UAPS shall inform the Complainants that they may request permission to attend the full hearing of their case.
