

HEALTH ETHICS SEMINAR

2021-
2022
SERIES

In collaboration with John Dossetor Health Ethics Centre and Office of Equity, Diversity & Inclusion, Faculty of Medicine & Dentistry

In 2021-2022 the EDI symposium will take the form of a longitudinal series of events. In collaboration with the John Dossetor Health Ethics Centre and the Office of EDI FoMD, lunchtime talks (noon-1) on racism and anti-racism are being continuously scheduled. This is the third presentation for 2021-2022.

HOW OUR BRAIN SEES RACES

My presentation will be in two parts:

1. Functional Magnetic Resonance Imaging (fMRI) has been used to identify brain regions that are activated by seeing different races. I will review studies on how our brain responds to different racial groups.
2. I will discuss my take of discrimination and racism that are based on experiences which occurred when I worked at a university in Northeastern United States and also growing up in Japan.
