

MORAL DISTRESS

Caring for Those Who Care

Save the Date! Friday, May 15, 2020
Maple Leaf Room, Lister Conference Centre
University of Alberta

TIME: 8:30 AM - 4:00 PM MDT

In contemporary health care practice, situations occur when health care professionals feel that they are unable to pursue actions that they perceive to be “good” or “right” resulting in moral distress. This symposium will focus on the phenomenon of moral distress and how we can support each other when such situations arise.

Keynote Presenters:

Wendy Austin, PhD &
Daniel Garros, MD

Co-Investigators of a CIHR funded study on moral distress in paediatric intensive care teams, dramatized in the film, Just Keep Breathing.

Registration Fees:

Regular earlybird participant - $150.00 + 5% GST
Student earlybird participant - $75.00+ 5% GST
(Fees include lunch, refreshments and resource material)

For updates on symposium details, registration, and Continuing Education accreditation, please check John Dossetor Health Ethics Centre website:
www.ualberta.ca/john-dossetor-health-ethics-centre
E-mail: dossetor.centre@ualberta.ca
Phone: (780) 492-6676