

Author Permission - ERA: Education and Research Archive

MACT Culminating Research Projects

I hereby give permission to the Communications and Technology Graduate Program to place my culminating research project in the University of Alberta's institutional repository, ERA: Education and Research Archive, administered by University of Alberta Libraries.

I retain copyright over this work and should be cited as author and creator.

I grant permission to the Communications and Technology Graduate Program to attach specific guidelines for the use of this work via the application of the Creative Commons 3.0 Attribution-Non-Commercial license guideline. This means that any use of this work requires attribution of authorship to me, and that commercial use of this work is strictly prohibited.

I grant permission to the University of Alberta Libraries to adjust format or technical elements of this file in order to apply operations that support the digital preservation of this work.

Student name : _____ Signature: _____

Date _____

Name: _____ Signature: _____

Individual authorized to sign agreement on behalf of the Communications and Technology Graduate Program

Date _____

Keywords (please provide 5-10 keywords that describe your research:

Return signed form to MACT Office at mact@ualberta.ca