Course Description and Objectives:

The primary objective of this course is to explore linguistic differences and similarities between English and French as a preliminary step to translation practice. Problem-solving approaches will be applied through a variety of collective as well as individual exercises meant to deal practically with translation challenges. The students will have the opportunity to familiarize themselves with professional translation tools such as TERMIUM and basic translation studies concepts as well as to translate a wide range of material both ways.

Learning outcomes:

At the end of this class, students will be able to compare and contrast the two languages under study and will be able to recognize French-English-French translation problems, analyze them and solve them. Students will also demonstrate understanding of basic concepts in Translation Studies.

Texts:

Required

- Most of the course material will be posted on Moodle or distributed to the students
- French-English bilingual dictionary (e.g. Robert & Collins)
- French dictionary (e.g., Larousse en ligne, Petit Robert, TLF informatisé)
- English dictionary > One Look Dictionary
- *Students should have a printed or electronic bilingual dictionary in class

Grade Distribution (see "Explanatory Notes"):

Participation in class activities and attendance (equal distribution)
Translation project (February 5 th & April 1 st )
Test 1 (February 12 th )	10%
Individual Presentation (alphabetical order - starting January 18 th )
Test 2 - "Mid-Term" exam (March 15 th )	20%
Group presentation (March 21 st , 23 rd , and 25 th )	15%
Test 3 - Final test (last day of class – April 8 th )

Explanatory Notes on Assignments:

1°) Participation in class activities and attendance

Very regular attendance is expected.

In class, we will engage into active learning with individual and group activities. Your participation in these activities is evaluated for:

- how well prepared you come to class: you're supposed to prepare all work assigned for each class session (e.g. readings, homework activities),
- your spontaneous contribution to class discussions and activities,
- your use of the French language.

The marking rubrics will be provided on e-class.

Students are also strongly encouraged to use the course Moodle to share any of their questions on the course content and answer them. This is particularly relevant for shy students, although all are expected to participate orally in class.

Important note: Disruptive behaviour in class is a sign of disrespect both to the instructor and to your fellow students, and will not be tolerated. Activities, such as chatting, surfing the Internet, using or frequently checking your phone, studying for another class, etc., will result in a low participation grade. Cell phones should be turned OFF during class, and should remain put away.

2°) Translation project:

- Cooperative work for the first draft of your translation and a short commentary on the challenges posed by the translation -> 5%
- Individual work for the second version and final of your translation and a short commentary on the choices made to meet the challenges posed by the translation -> 10%

3°) Test 1

• This test is designed to test the students' learning of the class material.

4°) Individual presentation "The bigger picture": "Translation as a key to social change" or "Translation and power" or choice of your own topic linked to translation studies

Students are asked to choose among one of these topics or propose a topic of their own interest to the instructor. The idea is for students to address a facet of translation that shows how it can concretely impact people's lives. This is an opportunity for students to become familiar with the literature in Translation Studies.

5°) Test 2: "Mid-Term" exam

• Cumulative exam on the topics covered in the first half of the semester.

6°) Group presentation

• Each group of students will present to the class their analysis and correction of translation mistakes they have come across in their everyday life.

7° Test 3: Final test

• Cumulative exam on all topics covered throughout the course.

Required Notes:

"Policy about course outlines can be found in Section 23.4(2) of the University calendar."

Academic Integrity:

"The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour (online at http://www.governance.ualberta.ca/en/CodesofConductandResidenceCommunityStandards/CodeofStudentBehaviour.aspx) and avoid any behaviour which could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University."

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment safe and free of discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels this policy has been or is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that directs discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the student ombudservice (http://www.ombudservice.ualberta.ca/).

Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL at https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/PoliciesProcedures/Pages/DispPol.aspx?PID=1 10 .

Academic Honesty:

All students should consult the information provided by the Office of Judicial Affairs regarding avoiding cheating and plagiarism in particular and academic dishonesty in general (see the Academic Integrity Undergraduate Handbook and Information for Students). If in doubt about what is permitted in this class, ask the instructor.

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that on-line "translation engines" produce very dubious and unreliable "translations." Students in languages courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of "cheating" that violates the code of student conduct with dire consequences.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Recorded material is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections 23.3(1) and 23.5.6 of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the "attendance and participation" component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

In this course, students are allowed to miss three sessions without penalty regardless of the reason for their absence (excusable or not), after which two percentage point per absence will be deducted from the 10% attendance and participation grade. It is recommended not to miss a session unless necessary.

Policy for Late Assignments:

"Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension just one time throughout the course with no penalty. However, if a second excuse will be granted for late assignments, half of the mark assigned for this particular work will be deducted. Otherwise, all assignments should be handed in on the stated deadline. Any assignment not handed-in in time or unexcused late assignments will not be given any marks. Late excuses will not be accepted for any reason."

Student Accessibility Services:

If you have special needs that could affect your performance in this class, please let me know during the first week of the term so that appropriate arrangements can be made. If you are not already registered with Specialized Support & Disability Services, contact their office immediately (2-800 SUB; Email sasrec@ualberta.ca; Email; phone 780-492-3381; WEB www.ssds.ualberta.ca ).

Grading:

Marks for assignments, tests, and exams are given in percentages, to which letter grades are also assigned, according to the table below ("MLCS Undergraduate Grading Scale"). The percentage mark resulting from the entire term work and examination then produces the final letter grade for the course.

"MLCS Undergraduate Grading Scale"

Letter	%	Pts	Descriptor
A+	95-100%	4.0	Excellent : Superior performance showing understanding and knowledge of subject matter far exceeding expectations.
A	90-94%	4.0	Excellent : Superior performance showing comprehensive understanding a subject matter.
A-	86-89%	3.7	Excellent : Clearly above average performance with complete knowledge subject matter.
B+	82-85%	3.3	Good
В	75-81%	3.0	Good : average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally complete.
B-	70-74%	2.7	Good
C+	66-69%	2.3	Satisfactory: Basic understanding of the subject matter
C	61-65%	2.0	Satisfactory
C-	58-60%	1.7	Satisfactory
D+	55-57%	1.3	Poor: Marginal performance; generally insufficient preparation for subsections on the subject matter.
D	50-54%	1.0	Minimal Pass : Marginal performance; generally insufficient preparation 1 subsequent courses in the subject matter.
F	0-49%	0.0	Failure: Unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requiremen
