Course Description and Objectives:

The purpose of this course is to allow advanced students to pursue a major research project. The course will have a seminar format. All students in the course will gather once weekly to discuss their fieldwork and their accomplishments and problems. Toward the end of the semester, the students will make a formal presentation of their work. The instructor will seek opportunities for students to share their work with a wider audience.

Students will produce 1) the data that they collected in a clean and organized fashion. A database is an excellent option and constructing a database is a useful skill to learn. Selecting metadata is not easy.

2) Students will also produce a long formal paper. The paper should be article length (20-25 pages, notes included) and the instructor will help students submit papers for publication.

Substitutions are possible. Some examples follow:

- 1) Students may substitute an exhibit or a talk in the community for the formal presentation on campus
- 2) Students may substitute a presentation at a conference for the formal presentation on campus
- 3) The production of online materials may be substituted for a part of the course research paper, although practice writing longer, article length papers is encouraged.
- 4) Students are expected to participate actively in the weekly seminar discussions, helping their classmates with their work.

Learning outcomes: by the end of the course students should be able to:

- 1) construct a research project. This means conducting a literature search, selecting a methodology appropriate to the topic, and designing a research plan or timetable
- 2) carry out independent research.
- 3) evaluate data. Not all data gathered during the course of the research will be relevant. Some will be discarded or saved for future work. Some will raise additional questions and the student should be able to determine the future research needed
- 4) improve presentation skills (speaking and data presentation in a format like a PPT)
- 5) improve writing skills (students should be able to produce a near-publishable paper)

Texts:

Because this is a research seminar, texts will be selected and assigned based on student projects. Students will be expected to report on their readings during weekly seminar meetings. Students are also expected to do a literature search on their own and to submit the results of that search to the instructor.

Grade Distribution (see "Explanatory Notes"):

Seminar participation, contribution to the work of the seminar – 15% Literature review and presentation of bibliography – 15% Development of research methods – 10% Term time research reports – 10% Oral presentation of final outcome – 20% Course paper – 30%

Final exam – There is no exam in this course. The final research paper will be due April 14; oral reports take place the preceding week.

Required Notes:

"Policy about course outlines can be found in Section 23.4(2) of the University calendar"

Academic Integrity:

"The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour (online at http://www.governance.ualberta.ca/en/CodesofConductandResidenceCommunityStandards/CodeofStudentBehaviour.aspx) and avoid any behaviour which could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University."

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment safe and free of discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels this policy has been or is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that directs discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the student ombudservice (http://www.ombudservice.ualberta.ca/).

Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL at

 $\underline{https://policies on line.ual berta.ca/Policies Procedures/Pages/DispPol.aspx?PID=110} \;.$

Academic Honesty:

All students should consult the information provided by the Office of Judicial Affairs regarding avoiding cheating and plagiarism in particular and academic dishonesty in general (see the Academic Integrity Undergraduate Handbook and Information for Students). If in doubt about what is permitted in this class, ask the instructor.

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that on-line "translation engines" produce very dubious and unreliable "translations." Students in languages courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of "cheating" that violates the code of student conduct with dire consequences.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Recorded material is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections 23.3(1) and 23.5.6 of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the "attendance and participation" component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

In this course, Students are expected to participate actively in all aspects of the course. Much of the work will be done with a partner or in teams. Students must treat their classmates and team mates or partners with due consideration.

Policy for Late Assignments: Because this is a seminar and the pacing of the research is hard to predict, there will be no firm due dates except for the final paper and the presentation that precedes it. However, attendance at seminars is mandatory and so prompt fulfillment of obligations to partners or teammates.

Student Accessibility Services:

If you have special needs that could affect your performance in this class, please let me know during the first week of the term so that appropriate arrangements can be made. If you are not already registered with Specialized Support & Disability Services, contact their office immediately (2-800 SUB; Email sasrec@ualberta.ca; Email; phone 780-492-3381; WEB www.ssds.ualberta.ca ).

Grading:

Marks for assignments, tests, and exams are given in percentages, to which letter grades are also assigned, according to the table below ("MLCS Undergraduate Grading Scale"). The percentage mark resulting from the entire term work and examination then produces the final letter grade for the course.
