1. Attendance and Participation: Regular punctual attendance is essential for optimal performance in a foreign-language course. Instructor keeps record of all missed classes. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness, domestic affliction, religious convictions or university-related business notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will be reflected in your grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of the course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result (see below). Participation is based on the ability of the student to collaborate with the instructor and classmates in class in order to facilitate the learning process, and to actively participate in classroom activities. Participation also includes coming to class prepared.

2. Homework: Students will be asked to hand in assignments, either from the textbook or from other material provided by the instructor, and on the textbook's Supersite. Students are responsible for completing and handing in these assignments on time.

3. Tests: Tests are designed to assess students' skills and will be based on the material covered in class. Students will take three in-class tests, each one worth 10%. Please note that unexcused absences will result in a grade of ZERO.

4. Dossier: during the course of the term, in order to perfect their writing skills, students will complete a dossier of short compositions (circa 200 words. each) based on the chapters of the Reader Le avventure di Pinocchio posted on E-class. The compositions will be completed in 2 stages; the first draft will receive feedback from the instructor, so that students can then prepare the second draft for the final dossier to be handed in during the last week of classes.

5. Oral presentation: Students are responsible for a 10 minutes oral presentation either alone or in pairs. The topic and format of the presentation should be agreed upon with instructor in advance and will be posted on E-class. Students should deliver their presentation orally and in person. Use of index cards, visual and audio support should be very limited and will be discussed in advance with instructor.

6. Final Oral Exam: During the last week of class, at a time to be agreed with instructor, students will take a circa 10-minutes oral exam individually.

Required Notes:

"Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar."

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:

"The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour online at www.governance.ualberta.ca) and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University."

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Language courses:

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student's own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour .

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy has been or is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.
- For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Sexual Violence Policy:

It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at <https://www.ualberta.ca/campus-life/sexual-violence>

Territorial Statement:

“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail as soon as possible within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result. Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour

Policy for Late Assignments:

In order for your assignments to be returned on time by the instructor they should be handed in punctually. Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension. Otherwise, assignments may be handed in one day after the stated deadline. Please note that late in-paper and electronic assignments will not count towards the final grade. Under NO circumstances will MLCS main office (Arts 200) receive assignments from students on behalf of instructors.

The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student's level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (<https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/>). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:
