Bachelor of Arts / Major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

<https://www.ualberta.ca/modern-languages-and-cultural-studies/undergraduate-program-information/prospective-undergraduate-students>

Course Prerequisite: FREN 150 or FREN 212 or consent of Department. Please note that new students must register in the course recommended by the placement test (unless they have received the coordinator's permission) to guarantee that they will obtain credits for the course. Students with a French immersion background must meet with the coordinator for an assessment of their writing and speaking skills and may be required to move up into content classes despite the results of the online placement test. This course is designed to help students reach the B2.1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

It is your responsibility as a student to ensure that you have the appropriate prerequisites for the course.

Technology requirements (minimum):

It is your responsibility as a student to ensure that you have the appropriate technology for the course.

Please review the university's requirements for remote learning: <https://www.ualberta.ca/information-services-and-technology/services/software-hardware-vendors/technology-requirements.html>

In order to participate synchronously in FREN 297, you need a computer or laptop with video conferencing capabilities (built-in or otherwise), and a very dependable Internet connection.

Course Description, Objectives and Expected Learning Outcomes:

The general purpose of this course is to provide a global review of the basic structures of French in a communicative context and to introduce linguistic tools that will allow students to further their understanding of the French language and culture in an autonomous manner. To this end, students will develop their oral and written communicative competence in informal and formal contexts. The review and expansion of their grammatical, lexical and cultural knowledge will take place in relation to the discussed topics. At the end of the course, students are expected to be able to narrate and describe complex situations, as well as to present a simple argumentation. Their occasional language errors should not distract their interlocutors/readers.

All sections of FREN 297 follow the same grammar program, but the topics discussed and their approach may vary from one section to the other.

Course Format: The objectives of this course will be learned from a combination of formal lectures, assigned readings and audiovisual materials.

Required Text:

- Nouveau Rond-Point 3. Éditions Maison des langues. Digital version
(Chapters 1 to 5 will be covered, and the same book is used in FREN 298.)
- Oscar et la dame rose (Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt) Digital version
https://www.renaud-bray.com/Livre_Numerique_Produit.aspx?id=1261654&def=Oscar+et+la+dame+rose%2cSCHMITT%2c+ERIC-EMMANUEL%2c9782226197368

Note:

- For digital access to Nouveau Rond-Point 3, student will have to create a free online account at <https://espacevirtuel.emdl.fr/register> and then upgrade to a premium account.
- You will have the option to purchase an annual subscription or a one-semester (6 months) subscription (see additional information on eClass).
- The premium account will give you access to the e-text and all audio/video component that accompany the book.
- Both Nouveau Rond-Point 3 (student book, workbook & access code) and the novel are also sold at the UofA bookstore.

Optional Texts:

- French/English Dictionary or App: Larousse, Collins, or Oxford are all good dictionaries. Avoid purchasing miniature pocket dictionaries; these have limited vocabulary and are not the best for this course.
- Grammaire progressive du français; niveau avancé; éd. CLE international
- La nouvelle grammaire en tableaux (Québec Amérique)

Explanatory Notes:

Importance of Self-Study: Self-study is important in any University course but particularly so in an 100% online learning environment. In this course, your progress with the self-study portion is directly evaluated through quizzes, assignments, participation and any other form of assessment. The synchronous sessions with the instructor are meant to reinforce what is learned through self-study; not substitute it.

Participation and attendance: Attendance and participation will be assessed based on the use of French during activities, preparedness, and active participation during video conferencing sessions. The marking rubrics for participation will be provided electronically. The instructor expects students to have read and completed the relevant self-study materials before coming to class.

Active participation is crucial for learning a language. This is true whether we meet in a physical classroom or remotely. However, we recognize that you live and study in very different environments. This is why you have the choice between two evaluation options.

- 1. You have the ability and are willing to meet synchronously with a microphone and a camera turned on for each class. Your attendance and remote participation in activities during our Zoom meetings will be evaluated. In-class participation includes not only evidence of individual preparation and attention, but also contributing to group work. You are expected to attend class regularly and punctually. If you must miss a class, contact another student (or the instructor) to find out what you missed. It is your responsibility to make up work and learn the material for classes you missed. For more detail, please consult the section Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade below.
- 2. You are not able to meet synchronously with a microphone and a camera turned on for each class. Your attendance and participation will not be evaluated. However, you will be required to do the same written activities and to take the same oral exams. The 10% weight of participation and attendance will be moved to mid-term oral and final oral exams.

It is the student's responsibility to communicate clearly and in writing to their instructor if they wish to choose the 2nd grade distribution option within the first week of class. Once they make this decision, it cannot be changed at a later point in the semester.

Note: If persistent technological problems with internet connections arise during the term, the instructor may decide (in consultation with the coordinator) that all students will be evaluated without the participation component. Thus, students will not have to turn their camera on at all times. However, students will still need to have their camera on during the oral exams.

Assignments and Projects: These may include but are not limited to online activities, textbook assignments, workbook assignments, general homework, writing assignments, grammar and vocabulary practice exercises, forum contributions, group projects and oral presentations. The marking rubrics, when relevant, will be provided electronically.

Compositions: Each composition will be written outside of class time, but students will be provided with in-class time to go over their composition with a partner to improve it in form and content.

Reading Assignment on novel is a series of questions about the novel being studied in the course requiring written responses in paragraph form. Questions are provided to students in advance as take home work.

Quizzes and Tests: Those are designed to test learning of class materials (grammar, vocabulary) as well as general reading and listening comprehension on themes related to class material.

Oral examination: The oral exam may be in the format of video or oral presentations related to themes covered in class. Students will be given a choice of topics to develop into an oral presentation that will be prepared outside of class time. The marking rubrics will be provided electronically. They will be done individually, in pairs or in small groups. The student's video and microphone will be required to be turned on for both grade distribution options.

Final Exam Information:

Exam Schedules for the 2020-2021 Academic year can be found at the following site:
<https://www.ualberta.ca/registrar/examinations/exam-schedules/fall-2020-winter-2021-exam-planner.html?>

Required Notes:

Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:

The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour which could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Language and Translation Courses:

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student's own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour.

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment safe and free of discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels this policy has been or is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it first with your language instructor, and if still unresolved, the French language program coordinator and, lastly, the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Sexual Violence Policy:

It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at <https://www.ualberta.ca/campus-life/sexual-violence>

Territorial Statement:

“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour

In this course: Students are allowed to miss three sessions without penalty regardless of the reason for their absence (excusable or not), after which two percentage point per absence will be deducted from the 10% participation and attendance grade. It is recommended not to miss a session unless necessary.

Missed grade components due to absences may be taken at another time if they are due to illness or domestic affliction. Instructors can no longer request a doctor's note for absences due to illness, but they may request other adequate documentation at their discretion such as a form from the student's Faculty or a statutory declaration. In other cases, including domestic affliction or religious conviction, adequate documentation must be provided to substantiate the reason for an absence.

The student must notify their instructor by e-mail within two days following the scheduled date of the term work missed or as soon as the student is able to arrange for an extension or make-up test / assignment. Instructors are not required to grant make-up assignments / tests or extensions for unacceptable reasons that include, but are not limited to, personal events such as vacations, weddings, or travel arrangements. When the student misses some term work without an acceptable excuse, a final grade will be computed using a raw score of zero for the term work missed.

Policy for Late Assignments:

Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension.

When a test or any other evaluation has been scheduled, any student who misses class on this day and does not have an excusable reason for the absence will get a zero, even though s/he might have been absent the day it was announced as s/he has the responsibility to enquire about what has been missed.

Disclaimer:

Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass. The date of the final examination is set by the Registrar and takes precedence over the final examination date reported in this syllabus.

Student Resources:

The best all-purpose website for student services is: <https://www.ualberta.ca/current-students>.

Accessibility Resources: (1 – 80 SUB)

The University of Alberta is committed to creating work and learning communities that inspire and enable all people to reach their full potential. Accessibility Resources promotes an accessible, inclusive, and universally designed environment. For general information to register for services visit the Accessibility Resources webpage.

The Academic Success Centre: (1-80 SUB)

The Academic Success Centre offers a variety of workshops on effective study and exam strategies. There are in-person and online sessions available for a modest fee.

The Centre for Writers: (1-42 Assiniboia Hall)

The Centre for Writers offers free one-on-one writing support to students, faculty, and staff. Students can request consultation for a writing project at any stage of development. Instructors can request class visits and presentations.

Health and Wellness Support: There are many health and community services available to current students. For more information visit the Health and Wellness Support webpage.

Office of the Student Ombuds:

The Office of the Student Ombuds offers confidential interviews, advice and support to students facing academic, discipline, interpersonal and financial difficulties.

Grading:

Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student's level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (<https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/>). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

“MLCS Undergraduate Grading Scale”

Descriptor	Letter Grade	Grade Point Value	%
Excellent. A+, A or A- is earned by work which is superior in content and form and demonstrates an exceptional grasp of the subject matter. The grade of A+ designates work that far exceeds course expectations. Grades in the A range are normally achieved by a small number of students.	A+	4.0	97-100
	A	4.0	93-96
	A-	3.7	90-92
Good. B+, B or B- is earned by work that demonstrates a thorough comprehension of the course material and a good command of relevant skills. Grades in the B range are normally achieved by the largest number of students.	B+	3.3	87-89
	B	3.0	83-86
	B-	2.7	80-82
Satisfactory. C+, C or C- is earned by work that demonstrates an adequate grasp of the course material and relevant skills. Grades in the C range designate work that has met the basic requirements of the course.	C+	2.3	77-79
	C	2.0	73-76
	C-	1.7	70-72
Poor/Minimal Pass. D+ or D is earned by work that demonstrates minimal familiarity with the course material. Grades in the D range generally indicate insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the subject matter.	D+	1.3	65-69
	D	1.0	60-64
Failure.	F	0.0	0-59

Note : It is our opinion that if a student does not receive a minimum of B- in this course, they should strongly consider improving their language skills (i.e. : tutoring, conversation groups, exchange programs, volunteering, J'Explore www.jexplore.ca, etc.) before continuing to the next level of our language program.

Consultation with instructors:

Students are encouraged to consult their instructors regarding any concerns they have about the course content, the structure of the course, or their personal progress. Please, note that students are responsible for any notes or material from any class missed.

Language of Instruction and Communication:

The language of instruction in the classroom is French. It is expected that all communication be carried out in the target language, inside and outside the classroom. This pertains to daily class time conversation with fellow students, instructor, and email. These aspects can affect participation marks.
