Course Description, Objectives and Expected Learning Outcomes:

In this course students will: 1) learn about some of Latin America's most iconic and non-mainstream Latin American women writers, artists, filmmakers, performance artists, activists, and important political and cultural symbols and 2) will be exposed to some important scholarship on these figures which will equip them to critically address the construction of Latin American women's identities, writing, agency, and representation.

By the end of the course, students should be able to:

- Identify, evaluate and debate important contributions from some of the most iconic and non-mainstream Latin American women writers, activists, artists etc. from pre-Columbian times to the present.
- Understand the legacy that patriarchal discourses have had and continue to have in shaping Latin American women's agency, identities and representations.
- Recognize how Latin American women have and continue to challenge and subvert patriarchal discourses regarding their identities, agency and experiences.

Course Format:

The course may use a combination of asynchronous and synchronous learning, and will take place on eClass and Zoom. Short lectures may be posted to eClass by the instructor to highlight select points on uploaded readings. Live/synchronous Zoom class discussions will take place approximately once a week (see the detailed schedule on eClass) to discuss select readings.

Texts:

All required texts will be available online for free or will be posted by the instructor on eClass.

50% Withdrawal Date: February 10, 2021

Winter Term Reading Week: February 16-19, 2021

Withdrawal Date: April 9, 2021

Last Day of Class: April 16, 2021

Components of Course Grade (see “Explanatory Notes”):

Class Participation	10%
5 Critical Eposts on Eclass forum	25% (@5% each)
Class Presentation (live on Zoom or pre-recorded)	15%
Take Home Test 1: Emailed out Thursday February 25th—due to instructor by email Wednesday March 3rd.	25%
Take Home Test 2: Emailed out Thursday 1st—due to instructor by email by Wednesday April 7th.	25%

Explanatory Notes on Assignments:

Class participation (10%): For an enjoyable and productive class experience for all, it is imperative that students show up to the live Zoom class prepared, that is having completed all assignments and readings thoughtfully and ready to engage vocally or through the chat function. Joining Zoom class and not engaging in thoughtful vocal or chat participation will not constitute “active” participation.

5 Critical Eposts on Eclass forum (25%): Throughout the semester, students will be asked to submit 5 critical eposts (300-350 words max. each) related to particular reading or film assigned for that day. Each small epost will be worth 5% each for a total of 25%. The lowest epost score will be dropped.

Class Presentation (15%): By the third week of the course students must sign up to do a 10-15 minute presentation (max.) related to a particular reading/topic/figure for that day. Students may choose to do their presentation live through Zoom or they can choose to pre-record on Zoom and share with the instructor the night before so it can be played for the students the next day in class. After the presentation is given or shown, students must be available to engage with student questions and discussion on the subject.

2 Take Home Tests (@25% each): There will be two open-book take home tests in this course. Students will have the choice to develop 3 out of 5 potential short essay questions related to materials addressed in the course. The first test will be emailed out Thursday February 25th and will be due to the instructor by email by Wednesday March 3rd. The Second test will be emailed out Thursday April 1st and will due to the instructor by email by Wednesday April 7th.

Required Notes:

Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:

The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students, faculty and staff are able to work and study in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Sexual Violence Policy:

It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at <https://www.ualberta.ca/campus-life/sexual-violence>

Territorial Statement:

“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.”
(from the beginning of the Calendar).

Recording of Lectures:

Audio, video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Should live lectures be recorded during the course to provide lecture access to students who could not attend on a given day, students or guest speakers will be notified beforehand to ensure that no other people are in view of the student’s camera/recording view as well as no other identifiable sensitive material. Students can opt to visually or audibly removing themselves during these live recordings. Links to these live recordings will be shared with students by email.

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course, students are expected to participate actively in live Zoom class/group discussions (vocally or chat function) and through critical eposts on the forums where they will showcase how they have thoughtfully completed their readings or other assignments for that day. In the case of an unforeseen emergency or an upcoming religious holiday/important family event, students may request an excused absence in advance or within two working days through email. In this email the student will explain how they plan to complete any missed attendance/participation component. Requests beyond this 2-day time frame will not be considered unless there are special circumstances.

Policy for Late Assignments:

All assignments should be handed in on the stated deadline. Students who consult in advance with the instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension just one time throughout the course without penalty. Should a student be given an extension for a late assignment but fail to abide by the new deadline, no further extension will be granted and the student will receive a zero for that assignment. In case of an emergency which has impeded the student from submitting an assignment by the deadline, an email should be sent to the instructor within 48 hours of the due date explaining the situation. Unless supported by substantial reasons, a grade of zero will be assigned to any work not submitted on time.

Disclaimer:

Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass. The date of the final examination is set by the Registrar and takes precedence over the final examination date reported in this syllabus.

Student Resources:

The best all-purpose website for student services is: <https://www.ualberta.ca/current-students>.

Accessibility Resources: (1 – 80 SUB)

The University of Alberta is committed to creating work and learning communities that inspire and enable all people to reach their full potential. Accessibility Resources promotes an accessible, inclusive, and universally designed environment. For general information to register for services visit the Accessibility Resources webpage.

The Academic Success Centre: (1-80 SUB)

The Academic Success Centre offers a variety of workshops on effective study and exam strategies. There are in-person and online sessions available for a modest fee.

The Centre for Writers: (1-42 Assiniboia Hall)

The Centre for Writers offers free one-on-one writing support to students, faculty, and staff. Students can request consultation for a writing project at any stage of development. Instructors can request class visits and presentations.

Health and Wellness Support: There are many health and community services available to current students. For more information visit the Health and Wellness Support webpage.

Office of the Student Ombuds:

The Office of the Student Ombuds offers confidential interviews, advice and support to students facing academic, discipline, interpersonal and financial difficulties.

Grading:

Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student's level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (<https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/>). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

“MLCS Undergraduate Grading Scale”

Descriptor	Letter Grade	Grade Point Value	%
Excellent. A+, A or A- is earned by work which is superior in content and form and demonstrates an exceptional grasp of the subject matter. The grade of A+ designates work that far exceeds course expectations. Grades in the A range are normally achieved by a small number of students.	A+	4.0	97-100
	A	4.0	93-96
	A-	3.7	90-92
Good. B+, B or B- is earned by work that demonstrates a thorough comprehension of the course material and a good command of relevant skills. Grades in the B range are normally achieved by the largest number of students.	B+	3.3	87-89
	B	3.0	83-86
	B-	2.7	80-82
Satisfactory. C+, C or C- is earned by work that demonstrates an adequate grasp of the course material and relevant skills. Grades in the C range designate work that has met the basic requirements of the course.	C+	2.3	77-79
	C	2.0	73-76
	C-	1.7	70-72
Poor/Minimal Pass. D+ or D is earned by work that demonstrates minimal familiarity with the course material. Grades in the D range generally indicate insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the subject matter.	D+	1.3	65-69
	D	1.0	60-64
Failure.	F	0.0	0-59
