

HUNTING

1. This sculpture of a woman and her child depicts Qaujimajatuqangit, meaning Inuit traditional knowledge. How do we see this represented in this sculpture?

What is the title of this sculpture?

This sculpture is made from sinew, bone, ivory and antler. Which northern animals do you think these materials come from?

According to Inuit customs, when does learning begin?

2. What is the title of the print that depicts camp life?

Hint: Make sure the audio tour has been turned on!

What is the name of the artist of this work of art?

Approximately how many drawings did this artist create during her lifetime?

What is the six-letter word used to refer to a specific style of parka that is worn by Inuit women?

_____

LIFE IN THE ARCTIC TODAY

3. It's time to eat! Which work of art in this exhibition is ready for supper? Who is the artist?

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 780.492.5834

Email: museums@ualberta.ca

Hint: Make sure the audio tour has been turned on!

What is the name of the traditional tool (often used by women) that is shown on the table?

Can you find another work of art in this exhibition where this tool is shown?

This print demonstrates traditional Inuit knowledge by removing what toxic part of the polar bear?

4. Which artist is known for depicting helicopters and airplanes in his work?

What is the title of this print?

How would you describe what you see? What emotions do you think are being expressed?

What story do you think is being told?

5. Let's visit a friend! What is the name of the artist who shows the realities of daily life in her home of Kinngait (Cape Dorset)?

This artist's grandmother is also a featured artist in this exhibition!
What is her name?

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 780.492.5834

Email: museums@ualberta.ca

Introduced in the 1950s through government resettlement strategies, this print shows what type of contemporary dwelling?

What term refers to an artistic style that tells stories in a matter-of-fact way?

6. This bright print tells the traditional story of what famous Northern landmark?

What is the name of the artist of this work of art?

If you visited this landmark for the first time, what is the specific way you must move across the land?

What elements of this work of art stand out to you?

BUILT FORMS

7. Which print shows a type of traditional Inuit dwelling made of sod, stone, and whalebone? Who is the artist?

Hint: Make sure the audio tour has been turned on!

What is the name of this type of dwelling?

This print is stonecut, which is a type of printmaking technique that is unique to the North. How do you think this printmaking technique works?

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 780.492.5834

Email: museums@ualberta.ca

8. Dance and keep warm! Which woven textile shows individuals dancing in a cold traditional Inuit dwelling?

What is the name of the type of dwelling shown?

Bonus! Look up the name of a traditional Inuit game and write it here:

DISPLAY CASES

9. This wall hanging is made from pieced together sealskin. Who is the artist?

Hint: Rotate the view down!

This piece demonstrates what traditional skill that is considered necessary for survival in the North?

Why do you think this skill is necessary for survival?

10. This sculpture shows several stages of hunting what animal?

What is the name of the artist?

What material is this sculpture made from?

Describe what you see happening during these stages of hunting:

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 780.492.5834

Email: museums@ualberta.ca