

| Master of Nursing Program Areas of Focus | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|--|
| Core Courses All students should complete these courses, with the exception of NURS 506), by the end of the Winter 2021 term, as a revised MN curriculum will be introduced in the fall of 2021. NURS 506 will be offered for the last time in Fall 2021. | | NURS 502 Nature of Nursing Knowledge |
| | | NURS 512 Quantitative Research |
| | | NURS 513 Qualitative Research |
| | | NURS 505 Transforming Practice |
| | | NURS 506 Program Planning† or NURS 508 Health Technology and Innovation or NURS 604 Fundamentals of Aging |
| Remaining courses to be selected from the following focus areas in consultation with supervisor: | Teaching | NURS 546 Philosophy of Teaching NURS 556 Teaching in Nursing Practice NURS 586 Teaching Practicum |
| | Research | NURS 687 Advanced Principles of Qualitative Inquiry NURS 683 Design Problems in Nursing Research NURS 588 Research Practicum |
| | Leadership | NURS 536 Public Policy & Nursing Leadership NURS 584 Advanced Theory and Practicum in Community/Healthcare organizations |
| | Community offered alternate years | NURS 508 Health Technology and Innovation NURS 536 Public Policy & Nursing Leadership NURS 584 Advanced Theory and Practicum in Community/Healthcare organizations |
| Certificates on Transcript | | Teaching: if all three teaching courses are taken |
| | | Aging: with NURS/HECOL 604 Fundamentals of Aging added to program†. |
| Electives | | Electives may be selected from NURS courses or other areas/faculties in consultation with the supervisor |
| Course based: total of 11 courses of graduate course work + NURS 900 capping exercise. Thesis based: total of 10 courses of graduate course work + thesis. | | |

† NURS/HECOL 604 replaces NURS 506 as a core course in the Aging specialization. NURS 506 may be taken as an elective.

| Master of Nursing Program (Nurse Practitioner) Areas of Focus | |
|---|--|
| | Aging Specialization |
| Core Courses | NURS 502 Nature of Nursing Knowledge |
| | NURS 512 Quantitative Research |
| | NURS 513 Qualitative Research |
| | NURS 505 Transforming Practice |
| | NURS 506 Program Planning |
| | NURS/HECOL 604 Fundamentals of Aging |
| Advanced Clinical Courses (may lead to entry-to-practice as a Nurse Practitioner (Adult or Family/All Ages)) | NURS 507 Advanced Pharmacotherapeutics NURS 509 Advanced Pathophysiology NURS 516 Advanced Health Assessment and Clinical Diagnostic Reasoning NURS 530 Advanced Clinical Care I NURS 531 Advanced Clinical Care II NURS 532 Advanced Clinical Care III NURS 533 Consolidated Practicum I NURS 534 Consolidated Practicum II |
| Advanced Clinical Courses (may lead to entry-to-practice as a Nurse Practitioner (Neonate)) | NURS 520 Advanced Pharmacotherapeutics - Neonate NURS 522 Advanced Physiology and Pathophysiology - Neonate NURS 518 Advanced Health Assessment and Clinical Diagnostic Reasoning NURS 530 Advanced Clinical Care I NURS 531 Advanced Clinical Care II NURS 532 Advanced Clinical Care III NURS 533 Consolidated Practicum I NURS 534 Consolidated Practicum II |
| Course based: total of 13 courses of graduate course work + NURS 900 capping exercise. Thesis based: total of 13 courses of graduate course work + thesis. | |

† NURS/HECOL 604 replaces NURS 506 as a core course in the Aging specialization.

† Courses in each of the clinical areas of focus must be taken consecutively and without interruption. These courses are exclusive to students in the Adult, Family/all Ages, and Neonatal programs.