

Knowledge Utilization Colloquium 2010

June 10 - 11, 2010

Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Day 2: Friday, June 11, 2010

13:30 – 14:30

Involving Patients and Caregivers in KT research

Aims:

1. Create a space for meaningful critical conversation about patient and caregiver involvement in KT research.
2. Learn from researcher experience of patient and caregiver involvement
3. Identify some key perspectives that will be useful for the KU group to consider in moving forward

- | | | |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13.30 | Introduction and overview of the session | Brendan McCormack |
| 13.35 | Involving patients and caregivers in KT research: issues and perspectives from a US KT researcher | Heather Reisinger |
| 13.50 | Involving patients and caregivers in KT research: issues and perspectives from a UK KT researcher | Kate Gerrish |
| 14.05 | Group Discussion addressing the question: “What are the benefits of patient and caregiver involvement in KT research?” “What concerns do I have about patient and caregiver involvement in KT research?” “What is a critical issue that we need to address?” | Facilitators: Brendan McCormack Christian Helfrich Tracey Bucknall Margaret Harrison Jo Rycroft-Malone |
| 14.30 | ‘Viewing Gallery’ of responses to questions (including coffee) | |