

GEN PEDS TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARD

DONOR:	Not applicable
VALUE:	No monetary value
CRITERIA:	The objective of the Teaching Awards is to acknowledge the essential role that clinical teachers play in resident education. As a Teacher, the General Pediatrician selected for this award will demonstrate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• passion for teaching and regard teaching as a priority</li> <li>• provide teaching at an appropriate resident level</li> <li>• adjust their teaching style to meet resident needs             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• provide high quality and practical bedside teaching</li> </ul> </li> <li>• proficiency in delivering relevant and organized information</li> </ul> As a Mentor, the General Pediatrician selected for this award will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• be a positive role model to residents</li> <li>• treat residents as colleagues</li> <li>• endeavour to be supportive, caring, and respectful of residents</li> </ul> As a Supervisor, the General Pediatrician selected for this award will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• provide constructive feedback</li> <li>• provide timely, non-threatening feedback</li> </ul>
DEADLINE:	The first nomination is in April and second nomination will be sent out if less than half of the resident group haven't responded.

--	--

Awards will be distributed at the annual Departmental Farewell in the spring of each academic year.