Legend

A = Arts course J = Junior course (100-level)
 R = Required course S = Science course

You cannot have more than 42 credits in junior courses. You will already have *30 junior course credits after you have completed your required junior courses. Additional 100-level classes, after the *42, will be declared extra to you degree and will not count towards the *120 credits needed to graduate.

Junior Course Credit = _____

If a ++ R PSYCO course is an Arts course, one of your ++ options must be a Science course to fulfill the *72 credits minimum. If both ++R PSYCO courses are Arts courses, both of the options must be Science courses to fulfill the *72 units minimum.

YOU MUST HAVE *6 in 400-level PSYCO courses, they can be Arts or Science.

PSYCO 212 cannot be used to fulfill a RA PSYCO 200 level requirement.

72 credits in Science courses are required. Your required courses and options are both included in this total. You can take additional Science PSYCO courses as your Science options.

Science Course Credit = _____

General Options can be chosen from Arts or Science courses. You can take additional PSYCO courses as General Options.

You can take up to four courses (*12) that are not Arts or Science as Open Options (ie. ANAT, PEDS, EDPY, HECOL or PERLS).

Extra to degree: _____
