

2000/2001 Calendar

The University of Alberta is a publicly supported, nondenominational, coeducational institution. It is authorized to grant undergraduate and graduate degrees, certificates and diplomas under the provisions of the Universities Act of the Province of Alberta, the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1980, Chapter U-5 with amendments in force as of February 11, 1999. The University was established under the University Act (Alberta, 1906), and is a member of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada and the Association of Commonwealth Universities.

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

Welcome to the University of Alberta – a dynamic learning environment with no boundaries.

We are constantly reshaping our academic programs to meet the needs of your future. In this global age, we believe it is essential for our students to graduate with critical thinking skills, well-tuned communications skills and international perspectives.

As an institution devoted to teaching and research, we offer a wide variety of excellent programming in undergraduate, professional, medical and graduate studies.

Our relentless commitment to excellence is driving us towards being indisputably recognized in teaching, research, and community service, nationally and internationally, as one of Canada's finest universities, and amongst a handful of the world's best.

Outstanding staff and faculty members are here to offer you the highest quality education. You, our valued students, contribute to our diverse and energetic campus community.

On behalf of the University of Alberta, I would like to extend our warmest welcome to you, and trust that you will enjoy exploring all the possibilities contained within this calendar.

Best wishes in your course of studies this year.

Please Note

- (1) Students are responsible for the completeness and accuracy of their registrations and for completion of the specified program requirements. This requires careful attention to course selection and compliance with prerequisite and corequisite requirements. Please read the Calendar carefully and use it when you register. If in doubt about the regulations pertaining to your program, consult the appropriate University official.
- (2) The Calendar sets forth the intention of the University at the time of its publication, with respect to all matters contained therein. The University reserves the right at any time to deviate from what appears in the Calendar, either in order to serve the best interests of the University, or because of circumstances beyond the University's reasonable control. The University expressly denies responsibility or liability to anyone who may suffer loss or may be otherwise adversely affected by such change.
- (3) All University policies and procedures are intended to comply with the Province of Alberta Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (Statutes of Alberta, 1994, Chapter F-18.5 and all amendments thereafter). If you have questions or concerns about issues related to the privacy of your personal information, or your ability to access information, please contact the FOIPP Coordinator, Information and Privacy Office, Ring House I, (780) 492-0531.
- (4) The University cannot supply more than one copy of the University Calendar to each student. Additional copies of this Calendar, along with the Registration Procedures Manual, are available from University of Alberta Bookstore, University of Alberta Edmonton, Alberta, Canada T6G 2M7
- (5) Information about awards and scholarships for undergraduate students is available in the University of Alberta's Awards publication. Contact the Office of the Registrar and Students Awards, Student Awards Office. The Student Awards Office is located at 103 Administration Building; phone (780) 492-3221. Visit our website at <http://www.registrar.ualberta.ca>.
- (6) Professional requirements: Students or prospective students intending to enter a profession following graduation should contact the appropriate faculty office in order to ascertain what requirements there are for professional registration above and beyond possession of the prescribed University degree or diploma. In some cases this information is provided in the faculty section of this Calendar.
- (7) Application deadlines for all programs are listed in §12 of this Calendar. Other deadlines are set out in the Academic Schedule §11. Students are advised that deadlines are strictly enforced.
- (8) Main Switchboard telephone number: (780) 492-3111. Main Switchboard hours: 0730-1800 Monday through Friday.
