

University of Alberta Consumer Disclosure Information

As per the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) of 2008, the United States (US) government requires institutions offering US Direct Loans to disclose the following consumer information. If you require any further information about the content, please contact Student Connect.

Consumer Information	Description
Institutional and Financial Assistance Information for Students	Visit our website for information regarding institutional and financial assistance for students.
Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)	Visit our website for more information regarding FERPA.
Safeguarding Customer Information	Postsecondary educational institutions participating in the Title IV programs are subject to the information security requirements established by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC).
Misrepresentation	The University of Alberta is committed to maintaining the highest level of integrity in all interactions with students, parents, and the US Department of Education. The Office of Registrar carefully monitors all financial aid documents for potential errors or discrepancies, including willful misrepresentations or fraud. The University of Alberta is required to report to the US Department's Office of Inspector General any individual who is suspected of fraud or deliberate misrepresentation of information that may affect an applicant's eligibility for Title IV aid.
Student Loan Information Published by the US Department of Education	The school is required to inform students anytime information regarding loan availability is published by the US Department of Education. The publication includes information about rights and responsibilities of students and schools under the Title IV, HEA loan programs.
National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS)	If the school enters into an agreement with a potential student, student, or parent of a student regarding a Title IV, HEA Loan the school must inform the student or parent that the loan will be submitted to the NSLDS, and will be accessible by servicers and schools determined to be authorized users of the data system.
Entrance Counseling For Student Loan Borrowers	Prior to the first disbursement, each school must provide to a first-time borrower of a Federal Direct Loan (other than consolidated or Parent PLUS loans) comprehensive information on the terms and conditions of the loan and of the borrower's responsibilities.
Exit Counseling for Student Loan Borrowers	Each school must provide counseling to borrowers of loans under the Federal Direct Loan program (other than consolidated or Parent PLUS loans) shortly before the student borrower ceases at least half-time study at the school.
Ineligible Programs and Courses	Non-Degree, Nursing, Medicine and Dentistry programs are all ineligible for Title IV funding. Courses taught by St. Stephen College, St. Joseph

	College and by telecommunication are ineligible for Title IV funding.
Official Exchange	If you intend to go on an official exchange as part of your program, you must be attending a Title IV eligible school. Please check the Federal School Code Search to ensure the partner university is eligible.