CATHOLIC EDUCATION SUNDAY

November 7 is Catholic Education Sunday. The bishops of Alberta write: "As the pandemic continues to challenge us, we encourage all who have worked tirelessly to promote Catholic education to stay strong, continue your good work, pray for inspiration and guidance, and be strengthened in the promise offered to all believers: 'And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast'. (1 Peter 5:10)"

For more from the bishops' letter, see the bulletin or the caedm.ca website.

FLOCKNOTE GLITCH

Anyone who tried to sign up for spots this weekend may have found that Flocknote (our signup software) was behaving oddly: asking for a password, then not allowing you to actually sign up for seats. The glitch only lasted about a day, but an issue with cookies required that you either clear your cache or use a private window (which doesn't keep cookies). If this situation recurs, please don't hesitate to email me at jim.stenberg@ualberta.ca and tell me what mass you want, and how many people you are reserving seats for.

NOV 14 - CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES SUNDAY

November 14, the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, is the World Day of the Poor. Your Society of Saint Vincent de Paul invites you to help our less fortunate brothers and sisters, especially at this uncertain time. We encourage you to lend a hand by donating non-perishable food items or making a financial gift. In this very busy period, we also welcome volunteers who are willing to serve the poor in our community.

You may donate to the local Society of Saint Vincent de Paul online at <https://www.canadahelps.org/en/charities/The-Society-of-Saint-Vincent-de-Paul-Divine-Mercy-Conference/> or by using envelopes that will be available at the church on the weekend of November 13-14. This year, we need your help more than ever. For more information, contact Maria at mariakssvp@gmail.com

D&P: PEOPLE AND PLANET FIRST

While global leaders are in the COP26 meetings talking about how to tackle climate change, more and more activists are being threatened and killed for protecting the forests, waters, and biodiversity that people and our planet are most in need of. The most vulnerable members of our human family are bearing the largest burden, dealing with the worst impacts of climate change and facing negative effects of ill-planned, top-down climate "solutions". In Canada, most people can speak out freely when injustice is committed. In many countries of the Global South, however, communities are threatened when they seek to protect their rights, especially their right to a healthy environment. This climate of insecurity is often fuelled by the presence and influence of corporations, some of which are Canadian.

This year Development and Peace's PLANET AND PEOPLE FIRST campaign invites you to stand in solidarity with these vulnerable communities as they struggle to courageously defend their rights, their lands and the environment against corporate harm. Our campaign is inspired by the words of Pope Francis who says that "a true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor"(Laudato Si', 49). For more information and campaign resources, see the D&P website: devp.org
