INDIGENOUS ART EXHIBIT AT SJC

Please join St. Joseph's College in sharing the art of Ovide Bighetty, from the 17 prints of the Creator's Sacrifice Collection. Bighetty was an Indigenous artist from Pukatawagan First Nation ('Fishing Place' in Cree) on the Canadian Shield of Northern Manitoba. In the Woodlands Cree style, Bighetty explores Christian themes. This display will help all focus on our roles in Reconciliation, and will be on display leading up to the Lac St. Anne pilgrimage.

St. Joseph's College joins with the Interfaith Chaplaincy at the UofA, and St. Stephen's College, to co-sponsor this art exhibit. The 17 prints of this collection will be on display in the St. Joseph's College foyer and Board room for all to enjoy, from July 6th to August 1st.

TOGETHER WE SERVE PROFILES SJC RESIDENCES

There is an extraordinary peace at <https://caedma.ca/togetherweserve/> about the College's residence, and how it is growing faith and shaping Catholic Leaders. Here are the first few lines:

- Alexis was moving away from her tiny hometown where everyone knew everyone to a city where she knew almost no one. But she did know where to find a home on campus.*
- Rielle came from a strong Catholic home and had an active faith life but it was time to figure out who she was and what it meant to be Catholic – apart from her family.*
- Larissa was looking for a place to live on campus. A friend suggested SJC but Larissa was concerned about the faith-focus: "Do I need to be more Catholic to live there?"*
- Éamonn was a self-described "Chreaster"* Catholic and heard about SJC "mostly by accident." He moved into the men's residence in his second year – with no expectations.*
Christmas and Easter Catholic*

Go and read the article to find out how it turned out for these students! And do spread the word about the residences at St. Joseph's College. Especially the women's residence. Most of our students find out by word of mouth, but the last few years have made that challenging.

DAILY MASS CHANGE

On July 4 (this Monday) the daily masses will be back in Kateri Chapel in the Women's residence. This facility is more accessible (no stairs!) and is cooler – the rest of the summer is expected to be hotter. During the papal visit we may move back to the main chapel – it is bigger (for any pilgrims staying at the University who wish to attend mass) and is easier to find.

SUMMER BREAK FOR CHILDREN'S LITURGY

Cecilia is taking a break from leading Children's Liturgy for the rest of the summer. She will be away sporadically, as will many of the families with smaller children. I believe I speak for everyone in thanking Cecilia for her tireless volunteer service, and hope she has a wonderful summer.

PASSING THE PLATE

On our step by step approach towards normalcy, the next step is passing the collection basket during the preparation of the gifts. We'll need two ushers to do this, and then bring up the baskets and give them to the priest (who will then set them in front of the altar – that's what we used to do, right?) If you would like to help with this, please let the presider know.

FR WARREN DEFENSE

Fr. Warren will be defending his thesis on Thursday, July 7, from 2:00 to 5:00 pm, Paris time (Edmonton time + 8 hours, so 6:00 am to 9:00 am). I am sure he would appreciate your prayers as he concludes almost six years of work.

BASILIAN NEWS

The Basilian Fathers will begin their General Chapter on Saturday, July 9 at the Kingbridge Conference Centre north of Toronto. What is a General Chapter? Well, it involves elected delegates gathering every four years to discuss the situation of the community, elect new leaders, and set priorities for the future. This year's theme is especially broad: "Past, Present and Future." Please remember the delegates in your prayers, that their decisions may help us serve God and our various ministries – not the least of which is St. Joseph's College itself.

AT A GLANCE...

It's the end of the semester, so most activities are on hold until the fall.

Thursday, 7:00 pm: AA group.
