WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

November 13, the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, is the World Day of the Poor. Your Society of Saint Vincent de Paul invites you to help our less fortunate brothers and sisters, especially at this uncertain time. They encourage you to lend a hand by donating non-perishable food items or making a financial gift. In this very busy period, they also welcome volunteers who are willing to serve the poor in our community.

You may donate to the local Society of Saint Vincent de Paul online at <https://www.canadahelps.org/en/charities/The-Society-of-Saint-Vincent-de-Paul-Divine-Mercy-Conference/> or by using envelopes that will be available at the church on the weekend of November 12-13. This year, we need your help more than ever. For more information, contact Maria at mariakssvp@gmail.com

CONGRATULATIONS, THERESA ROBINSON

Congratulations to Theresa Robinson, one of our Campus Ministers, on her convocation with a Masters in Psychotherapy and Spirituality (MPS). The convocation was at St. Stephen's College, and took place on November 7.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Here is some of the new programming this week on FORMED. Instructions on logging on to our FORMED account is in the side bar.

A Study of Sacred Art: Saints Peter and Paul

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they discuss an icon depicting Sts. Peter and Paul.

St. Giuseppe Moscati

"The Holy Physician of Naples" was a medical doctor and lay man who, in the early twentieth century, devoted his career to serving the poor.

St. Frances Cabrini

Follow the remarkable career of a sickly girl who became a nun and a missionary, and who established schools, orphanages and hospitals all across America.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE/CARITAS CANADA

Canada, the home of approximately 75% of the world's mining companies, claims to be a leader in responsible business conduct. Yet there is no shortage of allegations of human rights abuses and environmental damage against Canadian mining companies. Various UN bodies have pointed out that Canada is currently not meeting its obligations under international human rights norms and have called for effective policies and mechanisms to ensure all Canadian corporations, in particular mining companies, respect human rights when operating abroad; and for an independent mechanism to investigate allegations against Canadian companies.

The Canadian Ombudsperson for Responsible Enterprise (CORE), whose office opened to receive complaints as of March 15, 2021, continues to lack the promised powers needed to independently investigate allegations of abuse by Canadian companies operating abroad. Were the CORE to be empowered, it could help impacted communities access remedy and justice.

Since last September, D&P has been advocating for Canada to adopt due diligence laws to prevent Canadian companies' human rights and environmental abuses abroad and to help affected communities access justice. Join us as we continue working on this issue this year and help us mobilize new members so that together we can put our faith into action and build a more just world.
