Dr. Jane Barter, University of Winnipeg

NON-EUCHARISTIC LITURGIES

When Catholics think of liturgies, they usually think of the mass. But there are many other forms of prayer in the Catholic Church, some of which occur regularly in the main chapel. For example:

Rosary: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 4:00 pm
Mid-Day Prayer (Nones): Wednesdays, 2:30 pm
Morning Prayer (Matins): Fridays, 9:00 am

Morning Prayer and Mid-Day Prayer are from the liturgy of the hours. We have multiple copies of the texts you need. They are also available for free on your smart-phone. The Chapel is, of course, always available for private prayer.

CONGRATULATIONS MATT HOVEN

Dr. Matt Hoven, a member of our faculty and our worshipping community, was at the Sport for All Summit in Vatican City. While there he gave Pope Francis a copy of his new book, the Eighth Day. Something to remember!

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Here is some of the new programming this week on FORMED. Instructions on logging on to our FORMED account is in the side bar.

John XXIII: The Pope of Peace

This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, eventually his life as pope. Elected supposedly as a "caretaker Pope" who would keep the status quo and listen to his advisors, John XXIII surprised the Church and world by calling the Second Vatican Council.

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady, culminating in the final prophesied miracle on October 13.

St Teresa of Ávila: A True Reformer

Dr. Christopher Blum unfolds the inspiring life of St. Teresa and her important role in the Catholic Reformation. After having already been a nun for twenty years, she experienced a radical transformation in her own life and became one of the most influential figures in the history of the Church for bringing about conversion and positive change. Listen and learn about this Mystic and Doctor of the Church.

CATHOLIC VOICES OF RECONCILIATION

The Archdiocese of Edmonton has made available a series of interviews with Catholic First Nations individuals who were a part of Pope Francis' visit to the Edmonton Archdiocese. They were each asked three questions about their experience as both followers of Christ and First Nations people and practical ways that local Catholics can support truth and reconciliation. To read this interview, click here (if you are reading this electronically) or go to caedm.ca and look at Featured News for the interview with Camillo Alexis.
