PALM SUNDAY READINGS

If you are reading this weekend and would like a PDF of the texts in order to prepare, please email the SJC chaplain at jim.stenberg@ualberta.ca. Although the only biggies are pronouncing 'prophesy' as 'pro-phe-sigh,' not 'pro-phe-see,' and not saying "the first reading is..."

SAD NEWS

On Wednesday afternoon a loud noise was heard from the chapel, and when we went to investigate the font was in fragments on the floor. Whoever was responsible had vanished. We believe that the font was from the 1968 renovations. It is a tragic loss of a bit of chapel history. Fr. Jim was baptized at that font! We are working on finding a temporary replacement before something suitably dignified is obtained.

P.S. On Friday KJ MacAlister, owner of Viva Clayworks, loaned us a piece from her studio to act as an interim font. If we wish to commission a whole new piece, we can return the temporary font when it is ready.

OUTDOOR WAY OF THE CROSS

Location: begins at Immigration Hall, 100 Street and 105 Avenue

Time: Friday, April 7, 10 am

The Outdoor Way of the Cross returns! Hundreds of people, from families with children to students to the homeless will participate in the Outdoor Way of the Cross through downtown Edmonton on Good Friday.

Modelled after the popular Christian devotional that marks Christ's last hours, the Outdoor Way of the Cross started as an Archdiocese of Edmonton event but has grown into a community celebration of prayer and reflection on social justice issues, open to all faith traditions. In its 40th anniversary year, the theme is Care for our Common Home, inspired by Pope Francis' encyclical letter Laudato Si'.

The Outdoor Way of the Cross begins and ends in the inner city, where some of Edmonton's poorest people live.
