ARCHBISHOP SMITH PRESENTS...

Archbishop Richard Smith will be speaking at SJC on Jan 31 from 5:00 – 6:30 in the Newman Centre. The topic is a surprise! To register, visit cut.ly/R0a6x96 or email sjccm@ualberta.ca. This is part of "Crunch on Curiosity" series of biweekly talks.

CHAIRS IN FOYER

A few armchairs have been added to the foyer. They are especially intended for the use of mothers with small children, since we lack a cry room. The speakers in the ceiling are quite good for following the liturgy, although you can't see what is going on.

DEAN MORTENSEN DAY

On January 20 the College will remember Dean Mortensen Day, a student who vanished on about this date in 1992. Please pray for Dean, his family and friends, and for the safety and well-being of all our residents.

What does it mean to respect life? Dr. Tim Gray welcomes Lynn Grandon to his show to discuss this question, and various ways in which someone can be involved in the pro-life movement.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL VEHICLES STRUCK

The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul (SSVP) is a charity that provides food, furniture and household items to people in serious need. Its fleet of six trucks have been targeted for vandalism, theft of gasoline, and theft of their catalytic converters. One vehicle (a 16-foot Isuzu with licence plate CDY0360) was actually stolen.

The need for SSVP services has increased greatly; calls to the helpline totalled 6039 in 2022, compared with 2527 in 2021. You can visit <https://www.ssvdmonton.ca> to donate.
