KATERI BBQ

Saturday, July 15, after the 4:30 mass is the long-awaited BBQ. The weather should be warm, but unfortunately the air quality will be very poor. Face masks will help (though not while eating!), and the Newman Centre is available for those who don't want to enjoy the "fresh" air.

I don't know if parking will be an issue; the RSVPs indicate that 62 people will be at the BBQ, but I don't know how many spaces will be used. You might wish to arrive closer to 6:00 pm so those at the 4:30 who aren't staying will have time to leave.

UPDATE ON RESIDENCES

I am happy to report that, as of yesterday, the Men's Residence was full for the fall, with 7 young men on the waiting list, and that the Women's Residence was at 86% occupancy; just a little short of the budgeted 90%.

As an undergraduate college, St. Joe's is highly interested in providing opportunities and support for young people. The residences are a very important part of our mission. They are also a very important part of the budget, both in terms of expenses and revenues, and a so a healthy level of occupancy is definitely a win-win.

Please continue to pray that young people who would benefit from staying at St. Joe's will find out about our residences, and pray that we will be successful at meeting their needs and helping them to flourish at the University of Alberta.

MUSIC MINISTRY

I would like to offer my congratulations to Fred Mack, who has found a teaching job outside of Edmonton, and to thank him for his faithful service at the 11:00 am mass.

This is a timely opportunity for us to grow our music team. I am already thinking forward to Holy Week, and wondering if we have enough musicians to cover all the services. Please keep a lookout for any musicians who might wish to share their talents with us.

For the week beginning July 23, the following content is planned:

The Way of Saint James

This documentary follows the journey of several pilgrims, differing in culture and religious faith but united in their journey along the Camino de Santiago, whose feast day we celebrate this week.

Catholic Parenting Tips w/ Catholic Sprouts | FORMED Now

CELEBRATION MARKS THE RETURN OF CAMP MINISTRY – OUR LADY OF VICTORY CAMP

One hundred fifty alumni, families, supporters, and volunteers joined Archbishop Richard Smith for the relaunch of Our Lady of Victory Camp on July 8. The day began with a scavenger hunt and a chance to tour the property, where thousands of hours have been spent restoring and preparing the camp for this summer season.

LAC STE ANNE WELCOMES PILGRIMS JULY 21-27

First called Wakamne (or “God’s Lake”) by the Alexis Nakota Sioux Nation, thousands of pilgrims will be making their way to the shores of Lac Ste Anne for healing spiritual renewal. The pilgrimage grounds have been sacred for generations of peoples and had become widely known as a place of healing. Last year, Pope Francis spent the day there as part of his penitential journey.
