GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

This Sunday is Good Shepherd Sunday, which, besides praying for current pastors, also involves praying for vocations, especially priestly vocations. St. Joe's is blessed with two local vocations, the fruit of prayers 20 to 30 years ago. Please pray that more will follow! And also watch for signs of a vocation among young men you know. If you feel like nudging them along, tell them how you think they would make a good priest, or how priesthood might be a way they can find happiness and use their talents in service to the church.

EXAM TIME

Please pray for our students as they write their exams, and our instructors as they grade those same exams. It is a difficult period for everyone, but especially for the students. May they have the opportunity to demonstrate what they have learned, and may God bless them in their future plans.

EDMONTON SYMPOSIUM ON MEDIEVAL PHILOSOPHY

It turns out that there are a number of experts in Medieval Philosophy in and around Edmonton. They will be gathering at St. Joseph's College on Friday, May 3, 2023 from 9am-3:15pm. If you are an academic in this field, or interested in medieval philosophy, please contact Matthew Kostelecky (kostelec@ualberta.ca) for more information.

NO STUDENT MASS THIS WEEKEND

The previous bulletin stated incorrectly that there would be a student mass on the 21st. My apologies. The 7 pm student mass will resume in the fall, the weekend before Labor Day.

REDUCED BULLETIN SCHEDULE

Summers are usually a quieter time around the College, with less going on. Expect fewer bulletins for the next several months; probably every other week. If things are very slow, maybe even less frequently.

PRC SPRING RETREAT (MONDAY DEADLINE): PARADIGMS OF FOLLOWING A RESURRECTED LORD

Before the resurrection, Peter is a coward and betrayer; after the resurrection, he gives leadership to the disciples and preaches boldly. Before the resurrection, Mary ponders these things in her heart; after the resurrection, she is among those waiting for the promised Holy Spirit. Before he meets the risen Lord, Paul is a persecutor of the Christian community; after his encounter, he forms new communities of followers. By their stories we can make better sense of our call to follow.
