Evidentially Compelling Religious Experiences

What is an "evidentially compelling religious experience" (ECRE) and why does it matter? Dr. Travis Dumsday will present a talk on the subject February 27, 2019, 4:00 pm in the SJC boardroom. Read more here.

SJC News

Dean Mortensen Day

On Jan. 18, SJC remembers Dean Mortensen, a resident in the St. Joseph's men's residence who went missing without a trace on January 24, 1992 as described in this Maclean's article. It has become traditional for SJC residents to hang St. Joe's Rangers hockey jerseys out of their windows, as in the accompanying photo. Read more here.

SJC Research Project

SJC has entered an agreement with Catholic Health of Alberta to sponsor a research project called "Catholic Edmonton: Opportunities and Challenges." Under the leadership of Dr. Jeffrey Brassard, the project will examine the attitudes of both the general public and the Catholic community in Edmonton toward Catholic organizations.
