

SJC News - November 2023

SJC Friends & Alumni Event - Now Sponsored by Troubled Monk Brewery!

Join us on Tuesday, December 5th, at 5pm, for our SJC Friends and Alumni Event!

Held at the University Club, we hope to see friends from the college and multiple alumni from each of the last 40 years and give everyone a chance to mingle. Not only does your $30 ticket provide you with appetizers, fellowship, and updates about the college, but also free beverages from the Red Deer Brewery co-founded and led by one of our alumni (who will be there to chat!).

More information and how to purchase tickets here.

SJC Courses - Winter 2024!

Giving Tuesday for SJC is Coming on November 28!

The last Tuesday of November is Giving Tuesday, a day when many charities and non-profits encourage donations before the end of the fiscal year.

Historically the SJC community has been very supportive on this day, and we hope that continues this year as part of our Christmas Campaign. Thank you for your generous support of our mission.

Toward an Integrative Account of the Human Person

Discourse at the intersection of neuroscience and religion often stalls at questions about their compatibility, likely due to the prevalence of the false conflict model of science and faith. However, moving beyond compatibility to integration opens an enriching expanse of inquiry.

Sofia Carozza, PhD

Dr. Sofia Carozza is a postdoctoral research fellow at Harvard Medical School. She uses computational modelling to study the role of the early environment in the development of the human brain.

SJC Speaker Event

Have some free time in late November? On November 30th, join us in person at SJC or on Zoom to hear from Sofia Carozza from Harvard University speaking on the topic "Toward an Integrative Account of the Human Person".
